"Morning Music in the City of Lakes"

Sur Prabhat's debut Udaipur Show!

Udaipur: Gulab Bagh, Udaipur's picturesque site wore a new look with melodious morning music this Sunday. It all started at 6.15 am, with very dim light. Slowly music lovers and the morning walkers occupied seats in front of specially designed stage and started being enthralled by the notes and melodies of instrumental prowess! Shri Ajay P. Jha (New Delhi) on Mohan Veena and Shri Vanraj Shastri (Ahmadabad) on the Sarangi accompanied by Shri Prabhakar Pandey (New Delhi) on Tabla made morning of listeners interesting.

This early morning classical music concert was the first of its type in lake city. This special morning music concert "SUR PRABHAT" was jointly organized by the Nagar Nigam Udaipur and Portal of Ahmadabad, "Creanara.Com" at Gulab Bagh during 6.15 to 8.00 am with an objective to present morning ragas which are not normally heard in routine music concerts.

Shri Ajay P. Jha rendered Raag Ahir Bhairav displaying Alap, Jod, Gat and Jhala in teen taal. His control over his instrument "Mohan Veena" was remarkable. Audience appreciated his playing in slow, middle and fast beats.

Next was Shri Vanraj Shastri on Sarangi. He played Raag Bhairav with great proficiency. He presented Bada Khayal playing Bandish "Anandeshwar Ardhanarishwar Natেশwar" composed by Pandit Jasraj in Vilambit (slow beats) Ektal followed by another Bandish "Jag Kartar Too hi" in Teen Taal. They were accompanied by Shri Prabhakar Pandey on Tabla. Both the musicians presented a number form the great 'Grammy Award winning' composition "Meeting by the River" of Padmshree Pandit Vishwa Mohan Bhatt during Jugalbanti. The concert concluded with playing of

Vilas Janve

"Vande Matram" and "Jan Gan Man", National Anthem.

The Mayor of Udaipur Shri Chandra Singh Kothari while honoring the artistes said, 'this innovative programme "SUR PRABHAT" has made a prominent place in the cultural scenario of the lake city. Normally morning Raagas do not find place in the routine musical concerts. This endeavor of Creanara.Com and Nagar Nigam Udaipur has been appreciated by people.'

Representative of Creanara.Com, Shri Saurabh Kekre informed, 'We have been successfully organizing "Sur Prabhat" at Riverfront amphitheatre at Ahmadabad since January 2015. We were encouraged to bring this new feature in Udaipur. Indeed I was fortunate to anchor this historical morning concert. Dr. Pradeep Kumawat, Members of Nagar Nigam Udaipur were present along with a good number of Music lovers of Udaipur. This special concert would take place on every third Sunday morning of the month at the dawn.

empathy and care for others." Students from various schools of Ryan International Group actively participated in this mega event.

Democracy index by country 2014 (The Economist Group) shows India on 27th Rank among 167 countries. This is a remarkable achievement for every Indian who has made this possible in the last 68 years of Indian independence. Democracy from its origin in Greece until today has constantly been redefined and has been a struggle for human mankind. Today, USA, Europe, China, Russia and even North Korea consider themselves a democracy. We have to accept, there is no one global definition. The question is "How to empower our youth for a bright future of democracy in India?" The conference provided an opportunity for students to reflect on the world around them and also gave them a chance to open dialogue and learn directly from the ambassadors of various countries and help them shape the future of our country.
