"Mahalakshmi" Blissful Performance

Vilas Janve/ Udaipur

On the eve of 'Sharad Poonmima', on 26th October a huge gathering witnessed dance drama called "Mahalakshmi" under the white light of full moon at Miraj Stadium, Nathdwara. This high profile production had all sorts of technical excellence. Vast network of LED lights on truss and towers, moving heads, strobe lights, smoke machines, professionally designed sound machines with appropriate Speakers to produce punch and balanced throw of sound to cover entire stadium. Above all a big professional team to manipulate and manage stage, sound and lights. Large LED screens were placed to view detailed expressions of artistes.

None other than great classical dancer and film actress Smt Hema Malini was in lead role of Goddess Mahalakshmi. As the protagonist, she showed her tremendous talent on specially designed stage. Magnificent music was given by late Shri Ravindra Jain. High profile singers like Alka Yagnik, Suresh Wadkar and Sadhna Sargam rendered their melodious voices to this mega production.

The story covered few major aspects and features of Goddess Mahalakshmi including Struggle between Daityas (Demons) and Devas (Gods) at the time of "Samudra Manthan" (churning the Oessian). While the churning explored many wonderful things like Kamdhenu (divine cow), Kalpvriksha ( Desire Tree), Ratn (Jewels), Amrut Kumbh (Nectar) and others it also produced the Vish (Venom) which was consumed by Lord Shiv turning his throat blue (Neel Kanth). Coming of the most beautiful and prosperous Lakshmi was a great surprise to Daityas and Devas, but nobody was competent to possess her except almighty God Lord Vishnu. Episodes of marriage of Lord Vishnu and Goddess Lakshmi, curse of Rushi, Asthdevi (Eight incarnations of Lakshmi had become spectacular. Acting wise Smt. Hema Malini stole the show. Her graceful body movements and facial expressions took the production to a greater height. Hema ji deserves great appreciation as she lives her role with genuine quality

She has maintained herself to the extent that her each entry was spell binding. Shri Rahul D'Souza as Vishnu was too impressive. All the other actors and dancers also lived their characters with great involvement to make the production a memorable gift to the viewers. The present audience experienced divine performance. Sitting in the pure white light of full moon (Sharad Poonmima), viewers were privileged to see scintillating stage performance of the star Smt Hema Malini as Mahalakshmi.

Miraj Group is known for their grandeur. Madan Paliwal, the host was seen welcoming Helath Minister Rajendra Singh, Divisional Commissioner Bhavani Singh Detha and High Dignitaries to this Mega Show. Smt Hema Malini and her troupe have been giving high quality shows for last few years. The Miraj group is also committed to uplift the cultural scenario of Rajsamand through various activities.

The activists with red flags, placards and banners collected in front of the gate of the collectorate and raised slogans against the Modi government and the government of Rajasthan.

of the Union government and said that the BJP and its allies are imposing an undeclared emergency on the people of the country. He said that the returning of rewards and awards by the writers, poets, film makers, historians and scientists is a historical event. Never in the history of this country has there been such a spontaneous and massive opposition by intellectuals. Dr. Chandra Dev Ola, district secretary CPI (ML) said that massive changes are being made in the text books of Rajasthan Board of Secondary Education and those teachers who deny to follow the dictates of the state government are being punished. Prof. Sudha Chaudhary, State secretary AIPWA criticized the Union government for allowing the Hindutva organizations to take law in their hands. In the rule of Modi government people are unsafe and the scholars fear to speak or write freely. She remarked that the union government is casteist and anti dalit. Prof. Hemendra Chandalia, former Zonal Secretary AIFUCTO said that the country is turning into a totalitarian state with the saffron brigade imposing the hate regime over the people of India. He said that the way Union government is demeaning the protests of the writers, poets, historians, film artists and scientists is a sign of alarm for democracy. CPI (M) city secretary and former member of the Municipal Corporation Advocate Rajesh Singhvi called upon the people to fight unitedly against the excesses of the ruling BJP. Several other intellectuals and political activists also addressed the demonstration. Later a delegation led by Rajesh Singhvi, Dr. Chandra Dev Ola, Comrade Mohan Lal Khokhawats submitted a memorandum addressed to the President of India to the district collector.
