Royal Harbinger's articles among the exhibits during NAAC Visit

Udaipur : Articles written by the faculty members Prof. Hemendra Chandalia and Dr. Mehzeen Sadrwala and the students Dr. Pankaj Vyas, Pooja Bhandari and Nand Lal Gayari formed a part of the exhibits displayed by the department of English, Janardan Rai Nagar Rajasthan Vidyapeeth University during the visit of the NAAC peer team. These exhibits got a lot of appreciation by the members , faculty and students of the University. The department of English has a number of activities to encourage and promote creativity in the students. The Literary Forum is one such platform which provides opportunity to the students to express themselves. Dr. Mehzeen Sadrwala, advisor of the Literary Forum told that the students Urmila Purohit, Manu Sharma, Yugank Pandya, Deepanshu Suhalka, Joha Abbas, Ankita Vashishtha, Nand Lal Gayari, Bhuvanesh Sinsinwar, Chandrakala worked very hard to support the department during the visit. The students worked till late evening to give the department a facelift. Prof. Mukta Sharma , HOD told that it is the close relationship between the faculty and students of the department that resulted in the students' whole hearted participation in the event. The achievements of teachers, their publications and the achievements of the students were displayed in the department as exhibits. She said that the department will always lead in pedagogical innovations.

University became bride

Bihar elections

Nitish Kumar looked set for a third term as Bihar chief minister on Sunday as the grand alliance surged past the majority mark and left the BJP-led coalition far behind in the counting of votes for one of India's most politically-crucial states.

Data from the election commission's website for state's 243 seats showed the RJD-JD(U)-Congress alliance won in 178 seats..

"It was a very difficult fight. On the one hand were moneybags and on the other were principles. It is a victory of principles over moneybags," Janata Dal(United) chief Sharad Yadav said. This is the second straight electoral setback for the BJP after its massive Lok Sabha win last year and a victory in a string of state polls. It was swept aside in the Capital by the Aam Aadmi Party earlier this year.

The state elections assumed national significance during a bitter, high-octane campaign where Modi likely to stall the NDA's legislative agenda. Prime Minister Narendra Modi has called up JD(U) leader Nitish Kumar and congratulated him on victory in Bihar assembly elections.

Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal has congratulated Nitish Kumar for the victory of grand alliance in the elections. In a tweet, Mr Kejriwal said the victory is historic. Congratulating grand alliance leaders Nitish Kumar and Lalu Prasad and people of Bihar, West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee said it is a victory of tolerance, and defeat of intolerance.

Sanjay Raut of Shiv Sena termed Nitish Kumar as a political hero. National Conference leader and former Jammu and Kashmir Chief Minister said the victory will prove critical for the nation in the coming days. Meanwhile, JD(U) leader Nitish Kumar thanked people of Bihar for their overwhelming support to the grand alliance. In a tweet, he also congratulated the Election Commission for their efforts in ensuring smooth and peaceful polling across all five phases.

Congress vice president Rahul Gandhi has termed victory of grand alliance as a victory of unity over divisiveness, humility over arrogance and love over hate. Mr Gandhi said, the credit of the victory goes to people of Bihar, leadership of Nitish Kumar and Lalu Prasad Yadav and workers of the Congress.

No religion is bigger than humanity: Paliwal

Udaipur : Mirage Group Director Madan Paliwal consider himself the gardener of the group. And just as the group is engaged in promoting. As your garden a gardener working overtime to keep flowering.

With his son, manager Prakash, Neha Srivastava, Nitin Ameta, Lakshman answered every query of the journalists. On a journalist's request, sang Mukesh's evergreen song and paid tribute saying that Mukesh's songs bring freshness to lives. In response to a question, he said they believe in the quality of products. Recently launched Mirage paratha, they say that even today there are two bread making to check the quality.

If you get a failure then let's assume for the success of these efforts has not been completed is the key to my success is the only thing about it Mirage Group C MD Madan Paliwal said today.
