35th
MMFAA
2017

Udaipur: Maharana of Mewar Charitable Foundation (MMCF) is all set to organize the Maharana Mewar Foundation 35th Annual Awards Distribution Ceremony (MMFAA) on 5th March 2017. Standing true to its vision to perpetuate its core values such as service to society and mankind, serving as a temple of inspiration to future generations to continue the model of sustainability of 'Eternal Mewar', MMCF has been organizing this award ceremony since 1981. The scope and spectrum of the awards has been steadily widening since then. At present MMFAA not only applauds students but also honours international and national scholars for their work of permanent value to society. Few of the eminent personalities who have graced the MMFAA platform by receiving an award are Sir V S Naipaul, Dr. Chitranjan Singh Ranawat, Mr. Sanjeev Srivastava, Mr. Sunil Gavaskar, Ms. Lata Mangeshkar, Mr. Shyam Benegal, Mr. Kisan Babu Rao (Anna Hazare), Dr. Bindeshwar Pathak, Ms. Aruna Roy, Mr. Rahul Bose, Dr. Mandakini and Dr. Prakash Amte, Dr. Tessa Thomas, Mr. Piyush Pandey, Ms. Anu Aga, Ms. Amla Ashok Ruia, Ms. P. T. Usha, Mr. Jadav Mulai Payeng, Mr. Amaan Ali Khan, Mr. Ayaan Ali Khan and many more.

One can either apply on his/her own or can be nominated by someone for the annual awards. The applications and nominations received are reviewed by a distinguished panel of scholars, artists, historians and civil servants after which a final list of awardees is prepared. The awards are categorized into International, National, State and Student awards. Each award carries a cash prize, a certificate, a silver trophy or a medal and a ceremonial shawl.

The ceremony starts with the presentation of certificates to students from schools and universities in Udaipur and across the State of Rajasthan. This is followed by the main Distribution Ceremony when the awardees gather on the dais to receive their awards from Shriji Arvind Singh Mewar of Udaipur, Chairman and Managing Trustee of Maharana of Mewar Charitable Foundation, Udaipur. 'Maharana Mewar Foundation Annual Awards is an integral part of the activities of the Maharana of Mewar Charitable Foundation (MMCF), Udaipur and we take great pride in organizing this award ceremony every year to felicitate and give recognition to people who have truly served society by excelling in their respective fields' said Dr. Mayank Gupta, Convener of the 35th MMFAA - 2017.

Award details and prescribed application format can be downloaded from www.eternalmewar.in or can be obtained free of cost from the Office of Maharana Mewar Foundation 35th Annual Awards - 2017 located at The City Palace, Udaipur.

The last date for submitting the application forms is 30th November 2016.

Flute Of Mazoomdar Leaves Audiences Mesmerized

Nathdwara: (Nitin Ameta)

Renowned flute player Pt. Ronu Mazoomdar let the audience take a dip into the ocean of melody. And the fusion of Tabla with flute created an atmosphere from which no one ever wanted to exit. The program was organized in Miraj Auditorium at Nathdwara. Pundit Ronu Mazoomdar is a life time achievement award winner and also has been felicitated with National Kumar Gandharva Award.

He began the program with Bageshri Raag which was well complemented by Tabla sound. People loved each moment of the pleasure to their ears. The way Pundit ji stretched Sur of Sargam, left people spell-bound. The bandish of teen Taal in particular created a scene of real magic.

Ajit Pathak was on Tabla

while Kalpesh Sachala supported the music with flute. The flute of Ustaad Vilayat Khan especially was one of the mazing moments of the performance. Besides core classical, light music also found space.

Talking about music, Pt. Mazoomdar said that the seven sur of music are the only cast of a musician. He said that he wanted to become a music director but the music pulled him in the direction of flute. He said that he also created an album with Nida Fazli called "Koi Akela Kahaan". He played songs from film Love Story to 1942 A Love Story. He also sang songs of these two movies and earned big hands from audiences.

MD of Miraj group Madan

Paliwal too got musically enthralled and he sang a classical Chandan Sa Badan in raag Yaman. His apt voice was well supported by the flute of Pt. Mazoomdar. The program was graced by Inspector of Police Prasann Kumar Khamesra from Chittorgarh, Police Inspector Vishnukant from Rajsamand, custodian of Srijan, the Spark Rajkumar Rizvi, CEO of Hindustan Zinc Vikas Sharma, and Prantpal of Lions Club Arvind Chatur, Veena Khamesra.

Cow is respected in Islam too - Faiz Khan

Udaipur: "The cow cannot be a stray animal, rather the people who leave them after milking are stray in true sense," these were the views of cow story teller Mohammed Faiz Khan. He further said that in Vedas, Gau Mata has been considered supreme. He reminded that lord Krishna too in his life respected cow by consuming the milk, butter, and curd. Khan also called upon to declare the cow as Rashtriya Gau Mata. He revealed that even in Islam, the cow is considered as worship able. Faiz was speaking in a fellowship program organized by Rashtriya Brahman Yuvjan Sabha and Hindu Sanatan Manch at Fateh School ground. Mr. Khan suggested that to save the cows being killed in butcheries, it is important that people start giving place to the cow in their houses. He also sung Hanuman Chalisa and asked the Gau Bhakts to safeguard cows. Presiding over the ceremony, the state custodian of Yuvjan Sabha Girish Joshi said that this confluence for cow safety speaks clearly about our unity. He said that this program has people from all casts and religions which endorses the fact that the cow is universally worship able.

Member of Parliament from Chittorgarh CP Joshi at the occasion said that with alertness, the cases of cow trafficking have come done considerably. He expressed hope that this fellowship for cow will further encourage for cow protection. The enthusiasts remained at their place and heard all the speakers amid heavy rains and bad weather. "People remained there and listened to Mr. Khan and other while they faced heavy rains," said Naresh Sharma of Yuvjan Sabha. Program was graced by many reputed representatives and people including MP Arjun Lal Meena.
