PM spells out dangers of Pakistan's policy of promoting terror

New Delhi: Prime Minister Narendra Modi without naming Pakistan clearly spelt out the dangers its policy of promoting terror is posing to world as a whole and the need to isolate it if it does not mend its ways. Prime Minister in fact referred to Pakistan as mother ship of terror. Continuing with his direct assault on terrorism and its sponsors, Prime Minister Narendra Modi said criminality should be the only basis of working against the terrorism. He warned of the drawbacks and inherent fallouts of selective approaches to deal with terror and their masterminds. Prime Minister also said that the response of all nations must be comprehensive and there should be no distinction on artificial and self serving grounds. He also called for a deepening of security cooperation between the key nodal officers of the BRICS nations. Earlier, Prime Minister Narendra Modi touched upon many issues of vital importance while addressing the BRICS leaders at the restricted talks at the summit in Goa. But the main crux of Prime Minister's outreach was undeniably the threat from terrorism. He condemned the menace of terrorism in strongest possible terms and also cautioned that the growing arc of terrorism threatens Middle east, West Asia, Europe and South Asia. Without mincing words PM Modi said that in our region terrorism poses a grave threat to peace and security and tragically the Mother ship of terrorism is a country in our neighbourhood.

Without naming Pakistan Prime Minister said that it is a country that shelters not just terrorists, but in fact nurtures a mindset, that loudly justifies terror for political gains. PM condemned the mindset and exhorted the BRICS nations to stand united against this clear and present danger.

BEIIMAAN LOVE : MOVIE REVIEW

S. K. De : Critic's Rating : (3/5)
Cast: Sunny Leone, Rajnesh Duggal, Daniel Weber, Rajiv Verma, Yuvraj Singh
Director: Rajeev Chaudhari
Genre: Drama/Thriller
Duration: 2 h
What Is It About : It is a dark love story which revolves around betrayal in today's world in which Sunny Leone becomes a successful business woman and it is based on her tryst with love.
Review : As the film title suggests Sunny Leone plays a woman who does beimaan in love. Sunny does complete justice to her role which is integral to the theme of the movie which also has the tagline 'A Perfectly Imperfect Love Story'. Raj Malhotra (Rajnesh Duggal) is a spoilt brat who misbehaves with a girl Sunaina (Sunny Leone) at a party and she slaps him. Raj later realises that she works in his father (Rajiv Verma)'s office as a Business Development Manager in KK Exports Jewellery company. Raj then challenges his brother in law (Yuvraj Singh) that in 10 days he will be in bed with her. What follows is Raj and Sunaina's love games which actually leads to an unexpected twist in this movie.

What's Hot: This is definitely Sunny Leone's best performance till date as she packs a punch as she has never mouthed so many dialogues ever and the credit goes to the filmmaker Rajeev Chaudhari. The foot tapping music is the soul of the film and you will be humming the songs Hug Me and Mere Peeche Hindustan. The icing on the cake is Sunny Leone and Rajnesh Duggal's sizzling chemistry!
What's Not: Some people might have different opinions about love as depicted in this film
Final Verdict: Overall, Beimaan Love is worth a watch for its unparalleled concoction of love, betrayal, passion, lust, music as it leaves a lingering feeling.
