Krishna Janmashtami

Janmashtami, the birthday of Lord Krishna is celebrated with great devotion and enthusiasm in India in the month of July or August. According to the Hindu calendar this religious festival is celebrated on the Ashtami of Krishna Paksh or the 8th day of the dark fortnight in the month of Bhadon.

Sri Krishna is considered as the one of the most powerful human incarnations of the Lord Vishnu. He was born around 5,200 years ago in Mathura. The sole objective of Sri Krishna's birth was to free the Earth from the evilness of demons. He played an important role in Mahabharata and propagated the theory of bhakti and good karma which are narrated deeply in the Bhagwat Geeta.

Sri Krishna was born in a prison in the custody of Kansha. Vasudev, His father immediately thought of his friend Nand and decided to hand over his child to him to save Krishna from the clutch of Kansha. Krishna grew up in Gokul and finally killed his uncle, King Kansha.

The actual celebration of Janmashtami takes place during the midnight as Sri Krishna is believed to be born on a dark, stormy and windy night to end the rule and violence of his uncle, Kansha. All over India this day is celebrated with devotional songs and dances, pujas, arti, blowing of the Conch and rocking the cradle of baby Sri Krishna.

The Janmashtami celebration of Mathura and Vrindavan, the places where Sri Krishna had spent his life, are very special. On this day temples and homes are wonderfully decorated and illuminated. Night long prayers are offered and religious mantras are sung in the temples.

Sangh yatra organized

Udaipur: Management Guru kundanlal Gharabada along with his CAsan Sandeep organized a Sangh Yatra for Shri Nakoda Parshvath & Nakoda bherv Nath, in Barmer district of Rajasthan. Five buses were deployed for pilgrims in respective of caste and cader.

State Home Minister Gulab Chand Kataria came at Nakoda to attend the ceremony. Rtd DEO Kamal Pokharna & school Iec. Santosh Gupta expressed the words of thanks & gratitude to Garbhada family for this yatra of two two days concluded on 14th morning. Kundan Mama told about the impotence of Nakoda & informed that its only place we remember where thousands of Jain and Hindus pray for their wellness. Nakoda is a center of worship for the masses due to its miraculous peril-preventing power. On remembering Nakoda, the Lord makes the path of life hurdle-free and paved. The common masses maintain that the 'Prasad' (offerings in the form of sweets, fruits etc.), dedicated here should be distributed within the precincts of the pilgrimage. Taking the 'Prasad' elsewhere from the parameter of the pilgrimage is not considered to be proper. Pilgrims start offering oil on the idol of Shri Bhairavji from morning, which is available at Modi khana near the pedhi. The look of temple from the top of the hill is very interesting.

His son Sandeep adds that "This teeth place was established by Parampujya Shri Sthulibhadra swamiji, and hence it has much importance in Jainism. The ancient idol of Shri Parshwanath Bhagwan is very attractive and full of magical powers. Shri Bhairavji Maharaj, the adhishthayak dev of this teeth place is magically very powerful and is famous in the world for the amazing miracles. Even if there is no house in his area but it seems like a small city by the flow of pilgrims and visitors who keep on coming here for fulfillment of their wishes.

The ancient name of this Tirth is mentioned as Virampur. Virsen and Nakorsen of the third century of the Vikram era built this temple and His Holiness Jain Acharya Sthulibhadrasuri installed the idol."

The Parsvanatha Jain temple was originally a temple of Mahavira. One of the Founding Trustees of the current temple at the Nakoda Tirthstan is the late Shri Keshrimal Sanghvi of the now defunct Patent Tiffin Carrier (PTC) company from Pune. The current generation of the Sanghvi family still remain as one of the Trustees of the temple.

Kashmir issue: "Na gaali se samasya sulajhne wali hai, na goli se" PM

New Delhi: Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Tuesday said bullets or abuses will not resolve the Kashmir issue and that it can be addressed by embracing every Kashmiri. Addressing the nation on the 71st Independence Day from the ramparts of the historic Red Fort, he asserted that his government is committed to restoring the lost glory of Kashmir and its status as 'heaven on earth'.

"Na gaali se samasya sulajhne wali hai, na goli se, samasya suljhegi har Kashmiri ko gale lagane se (Kashmir problem cannot be resolved by either bullets or by abuses. It can be resolved by embracing all Kashmiris)," Modi said in his fourth Independence Day speech. He said only a "handful of separatists" were resorting to different tactics to create problems in the state and asserted that there will be no soft approach towards terrorism. The government is committed to make Kashmir a paradise once again, the prime minister asserted.

Not only the J&K government but the entire country is with the people of the state in helping them realise their dreams of development, Modi said. During his hour-long address, the prime minister also declared that that violence in the name of faith was not acceptable and termed casteism and communalism as poison. Referring to recent incidents of natural calamities in various parts of the country as also death of children at a state-run hospital in Uttar Pradesh, he said sympathies of the entire nation are with the affected families.

"Many parts of the country faced natural calamities in the recent past. Children died at a hospital. The entire nation is with them," Modi said. Noting that natural calamities become a big challenge, he said while good rains contribute to prosperity of the country, climate change creates problems. Talking about national security, he said it is a priority and the country is capable of defending itself in all spheres. India is capable of tackling any challenge in any frontier -- land, sea or the cyber space, the prime minister said against the backdrop of border stand-off with China in Doklam. Earlier, Modi was received by Defence Minister Arun Jaitley, Minister of State for Defence Subhash Bhamre and Defence Secretary Sanjay Mitra as he arrived at Red Fort.

He received a Guard of Honour from a contingent of the Army, Navy, Air Force and Delhi Police. The Prime Minister then unfurled the national flag amid a 21-gun salute. PM Modi also greeted the nation on India's Independence Day as well as Janmashtami. "Independence Day greetings to my fellow Indians. Jai Hind," Modi tweeted. "Greetings on Janmashtami," he added.
