They will also attend the preaching session by Digamber Saint Muni Pratik Sagar. From here they will depart for Kolkata on 3rd October.

To worship Lord Mahavir :

On 6th October, the pilgrims will leave Kolkata for Bodh Gaya. From here the next trip will be to Pavapuri, the nirvana centre of Lord Mahavir. From here they will move to Rajgiri, meditation centre of Mahavir ji and then head to his birth place in Kundalpur. On 9th October, the pilgrims will return to Udaipur.

Debris dumped in Ayad flow not yet removed

Udaipur: Debris was dumped in the region of flow of Ayad river. It was supposed to be removed completely but the removal work has been done only for namesake.

A highway is under construction on Kaya-Debari bypass. The contractor of National highway authority dumped the debris from this area into the path of flow of Ayad river. ADM Administration had instructed the contractors to remove the debris from this region. The contractor reportedly deployed machines to remove the debris but the work was done only for namesake.

A lot of quantity is still lying in the area of Ayad flow.

Seeing the danger it can cause, Water Resource department wrote to the National Highway and asked for the debris to be removed.

The department has also been alerted of the oncoming danger if the debris is not removed. Because of the debris blocking the path of water inflow, a lot of water had flown out on the road just two days back.

If the debris is not removed, water will find its path on the road creating a flood like situation which can prove to be extremely troublesome.

Bollywood actress Diya Mirza said that Rajasthan is my favorite state. I feel very happy whenever I come here. I am very happy that Sojatia Group has invited me to City of Lakes. I want to thank you for giving such a good opportunity. On the question of continuity and conflict in Bollywood movies of cine dancers, she said that there is 'of Number Problem' here. Tradition in our industry has come to the fore that the heroes of the old age should work with the young girls, they have the same desire.

There is always a choice for them to work in the film with a new girl. Fortunately now this trend is changing. Very few people are making films, stories are being created, in the meantime, the position of heroine is also getting better and stronger. Girls never have conditions in the films. Now it depends only on the choice of indigenous. If you ask any artist what kind of film she wants to be a part of, then she answers that he wants to be a part of a good film.
