Kaun Banega Crorepati : Saroj - takes home Rs 6.4 Lac

Udaipur: Saroj Sisodiya, Udaipur's maiden entry at Amitabh Bachchan's TV Gameshow Kaun Banega Crorepati, exited the show with a win of Rs 6.40 Lac.

She exited at the Rs 12,50,000 level after choosing not to answer the question, in the absence of any more lifelines.

Earlier during the show, which was titled A Smart

Woman and an Enthusiastic Man, Saroj displayed exemplary patience and fortitude in answering questions - directly as well as by using her lifelines. She initiated today's show with the Rs 3,000 question, and was playing well till the Rs 12,50,000 level. However, she was not sure on an answer to question on Hindi literature and chose to exit the game with a prize money of Rs 6.4 Lac.

Saroj hails from Bhiwara and is married in Udaipur. In her conversation with Amitabh Bachchan, she said that she was married while she was in second year in college.

It was her husband's support that enabled her to pursue her studies even after marriage and she managed to do her BE from Jodhpur, while staying away from family for a period of one year.

She left her infant daughter at her parents place to facilitate ease in managing the household for her husband.

In her conversation, she also said that her husband and she never have a similar point of view towards most issues but she manages to keep things rolling and smooth.
