

Honor the Power!

Life's all about how you react to a certain action of nature. If you take sorrow very seriously, it will leave you in blues. And your strong and positive attitude gives you a way to tackle the thing more comprehensively. Someone to whom you loved the most dumped you for no specific reason. Now your reaction to this will decide how your heart will take that. But going against the obvious is really difficult. And something called your inner-self does not respond your call to go against the situation to fight it out. This makes it all the more difficult as you have to fight the situation as well as drag your inner-self in the opposite direction.

But this is all about countering life's action. And life acts based upon our own past actions. Today you are sad and feeling low. And you want the other people to act carefully and sympathetically towards you. And most of the people you hope to help turn their backs towards you. Why? They are normal and powerful today. Unlike you who has been broken down with the hit of the circumstances.

Editorial

Now, recall the time when you were on the other side, and someone else was in the place where you are at the moment. How did you react? Were you the same as you are hoping people to be with you today? Probably not!

Yes, Life's all about reacting on certain situations. When you are powerful, you do not get a license to act loosely. Instead, you have to be very responsible and humble if nothing else. The power given to you by nature is a test, and most of us fail because we forget that the lie is a circle and we have to be in the shoes of those powerless at the moment sooner or later. So your good deeds is a sort of insurance that when you are in that bad patch of your life, people will react positively and humbly to you. But remember, you can never avoid that bad patch. Life is a circle, and it keeps moving in front of situations. At times it is facing the Sun and black dark on the other. So, if you are a boss, understand the needs of your employees for in your bad times, someone else will be your boss, and then you will seek sympathy. And you will get what you had given earlier.

Eye Check-up Camp for Sakhi Rural & Tribal Women by Hindustan Zinc

Udaipur: Hindustan Zinc under its Community Service Initiatives, organized Eye check-up camp for Sakhi rural & tribal women of Zawar Mines. The camp was organized at Rural Development Resource Centre of Zawar Mines where more than 30 rural & tribal women from 18 families got benefited.

Hindustan Zinc through its various health initiatives is committed to supporting measures for ensuring the health and well-being of people living around its operational areas, as well as the public at large. Apart from specialized care, thousands of families benefit from regular health, awareness, ayurvedic & other specialized camps that are organized in communities around the company's operations. Women empowerment is a key factor in the overall development of a family and a community. The Sakhi program promotes sustainable women run grassroots institutions like Self Help Groups (SHGs) to act as vehicles for empowerment. Currently, there are over 1560 Sakhi SHGs comprising more than 19860 rural & tribal women of 5 districts of Rajasthan - Ajmer, Bhilwara, Chittorgarh, Rajasmand & Udaipur and Pantnagar in Uttarakhand.

These Sakhi women from 4 nearby villages of Zawar Mines are currently working on Stitching project where they prepare garments for FabIndia.

But too. Trust me this one was unexpected, the numbers are already millions and i am excited about it! Surely your fans are too Poonam.

If watched the trailer... the dialogues, scenes, cinematography and intensity of the characters are hilarious and intriguing. Over a love story between Shakti Kapoor and Poonam Pandey. Does that ring a bell?

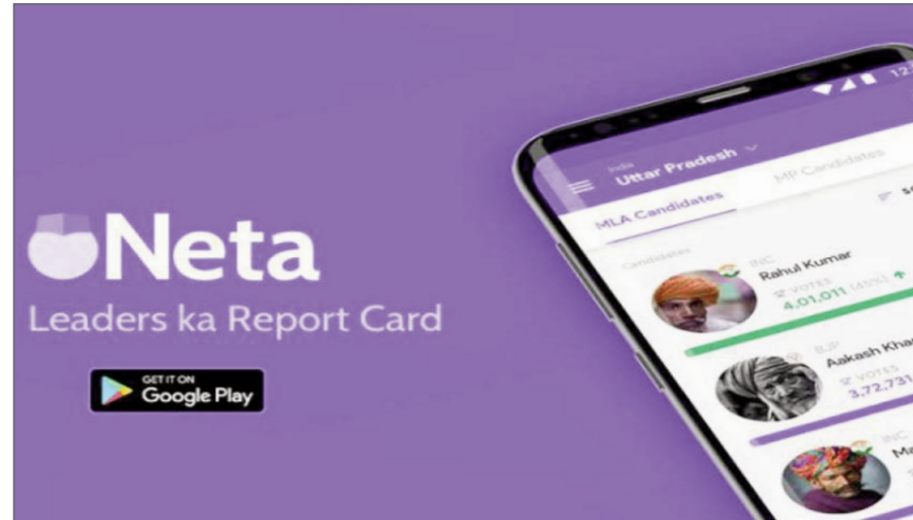

"The Journey Of Karma" is written by Rupesh Paul, produced and directed by Jagbir Dahiya of Surya Entertainment. The movie will be releasing on the 26th of Oct 2018 all over.

'THE ABOVE & BEYOND TOUR' DEMONSTRATES LAND ROVER CAPABILITIES

Neta App crosses 45 Lakh votes across 200 constituencies in Rajasthan

Udaipur: Since its high-profile launch in August this year, Neta, a first of its kind technology platform in India that lets voters rate and review their political representatives, has registered 45Lakh verified voters across 200 constituencies in Rajasthan, ahead of assembly elections in the state. The platform aims at fostering political accountability by being an early indicator of how a leader's performance is being perceived by voters. Neta App had a formal launch in the capital on August 24, 2018 by Former President, Shri Pranab Mukherjee in the presence of Chief Minister of Delhi, Shri Arvind Kejriwal, Former Election Commissioners, Mr. S. Y. Quraishi, Mr. Nasim Zaidi, Shri Ashwini Kumar (Former Law Minister of India), Shri Murlidhar Joshi (MP and Former HRD Minister), Shri Shivraj Patil (Former Home Minister of India), and Shri Vijay Sampla (Minister of State of Social Justice and Empowerment). In Rajasthan, the app is increasingly finding adoption not only in the metros but across Tier 2 and 3 towns like Churu, Jhunjhunu and Ganganagar as well. Countrywide, the platform is being used by 1.6 crore subscribers to date. The app is available on Android, iOS and web in 16 languages, keeping in mind the diverse user profile. In order to ensure participation across demographics, including the rural heartlands, Neta app uses multiple mediums like the app itself, IVR calls, SMS and even offline activations with the help of Aashwadi and Aanganwadi workers, to gather data on the evolving political inclinations.

Commenting on the Rajasthan launch, Pratham Mittal, Founder, Neta App said, "With the state set to go to polls soon, this is the right time for people to know more about their netas and indicate the candidates they want as their representatives. Neta App enables them to do just that. We are happy to see the massive adoption that the app has witnessed in Rajasthan. Hopefully, political parties will take a cue from people's preferences on the app when it comes to candidate selection. This will be a big win for our democracy."

With two former Election Commissioners on board, Neta

app aims to create a deep impact on citizen and political engagement in the country. Apart from the obvious ability to let people rate their MLAs and MPs, the app serves as a useful barometer to gauge voter sentiment at any given point of time, across each constituency in the country. Neta also provides new leaders with an opportunity to showcase their popularity and catch the attention of political parties. Incumbent party candidates will now get a run for their money as anyone who is interested in fighting an election can be featured on the app by gathering 1000 votes from their constituency.

Nearly 3000 citizens from Rajasthan have self-nominated themselves on the app to showcase their popularity to party high commands.

By the way: # MeToo

Hritu Sodhi

First of all I apologize all my readers for not being in contact for so long. I was keeping ill from one year. Writing on any issue needs concentration, I was in so much pain that I could not write a single word.

Last night I was surfing internet and came through a post written by film producer Vinta Nanda. I know she is a very good writer. I was surprised that she stopped writing and producing serials. Tara was a revolution in TV industry. I, being an 1990 college going girl, was highly impressed by the concept. I give full credit to Vinta Nanda for changing the mindset of Indian audience in 90s. Here I am not talking about her pain and depression. I don't have any right to comment on this incident.

But I feel sorry for those who never believed a female. Whenever any celebrity or common girl complains about sexual harassment, we try to mentally rape her again by questioning her in different ways. I know in some cases women have also put false charges against men but ratio is still very less. Women are being troubled, harassed, molested, violated, ill treated by men in homes and work places. Men may boast off in front of others that they have slept with 300 plus girls.

Is this a proud moment in any way?

Have they done anything to make us proud?

Why it is being discussed by men everywhere with so much pride?

Have you seen any girl doing this normally?

It's a matter of shame for anyone who has no control on his or her senses. Raping a woman can never define your personality. A man removes his clothes first to do this.

Why his nudity is never discussed?

Why women feel guilty after the incident? As a woman I don't feel that I am someone's property which he can easily snatch away.

A man loses his dignity if he does this. We must start teaching our sons to wear proper clothes even in their young age so that when they remove their clothes, they feel the same as girls feel in front of others.

We don't educate boys in childhood to hide their private parts and that's why they don't bother or feel shame. If a boy has a right to live this way and we are still not understanding, what type of world we are going to see in future?

We have to accept this fact that any male can do this in his weak moments. We have developed them like this, now why are we discussing this on social platform.

I have seen many people who don't believe females when they come forward to register any complain.

Unfortunately women have to prove mental or sexual harassment.

How is it possible to prove these incidents? Women are not safe anywhere. Males touch them in buses or trains. They have full right to comment on their bodies. There are laws to protect women but we have to remember each and every word or incident without which you can't prove the other person guilty.

Rapes are being done in isolated places, harassment is being done anywhere but how can you find any witness?

Who does this publically and leaves proof against him?

There are thousand loopholes and women don't feel safe by complaining against this crime. They are targeted by others. Noone comes forward to stand by them.

I feel sorry for all of us who have taken birth as a female and ever being tortured by any male in anyway.

We are not allowed to speak and when we try to speak, we are left alone. When we try to handle this with patience our own friends call us coward, when we come forward, we are asked to arrange proofs.

Its a fight which we have to lose anyway.

Being a writer I can express my agony and pain through writing this article. I salute those women who don't speak due to pressure of family and society.

It hardly matters. At least they have the courage to live with pain forever. I can only request females to come forward and join #MeToo campaign.

Expose or live like this. Choice is yours.

Team Bangalore Win All India Castrol Bikes

Mumbai, Ratan Khanda, Joseph Peter Rajakumar and Ravish Siddegowda from Bangalore, have emerged winners in the finale of the Castrol Super Mechanic Contest for bikes. Twentyfour mechanics from across the country tested their mettle against each other in a thrilling final event. The winners now get an opportunity to represent India at the Castrol Asia Pacific Bikes Super Mechanic contest to be held in Bangkok in November 2018.

The event was a befitting end to the six-month long Castrol Bikes Super Mechanic contest that saw about one lakh mechanics compete at various stages of the competition for the coveted champions title. The contest continued its thrust on upskilling mechanics through personal and group training sessions, technical tips and special boot camps. A unique addition to this year's contest was the augmentation of the event through 'Castrol Garage Guru - The Super Mechanic Show' - a TV programme which covered the contest and had a chat show plus training session with mechanics selected from across the country in each episode. The show, hosted by ace Bollywood actor Jimmy Sheirgill, airs every Sunday, 10.30pm on Zee Anmol till 25 November, 2018.

According to Kedar Apte - Vice President Marketing, Castrol India, "The Castrol Super Mechanic Contest was launched last year as a mission to recognize and reward India's most talented mechanics and whilst doing so, also provide them upskilling and knowledge development opportunities. I am delighted to see this platform being recognized by mechanics as educational and inspiring and seeing them participate in such large numbers. This year we connected with about one lakh mechanics throughout the contest. This year we have added one more exciting initiative linked with the event, launching a TV show - 'Castrol Garage Guru - The Super Mechanic Show' which will provide viewers an up-close glimpse into our mechanics' lives and aspirations whilst enabling mechanics to showcase their skills and commitment which keep India moving."

Mechanic Joseph Peter Rajakumar, one of the winning team members, said: "We mechanics have very little time and opportunity to learn about the latest technology and we don't get to showcase our skills anywhere except amongst our own customers. Castrol has provided me with a great opportunity through the Castrol Super Mechanic contest & Garage Guru TV show, to gain valuable knowledge and demonstrate my skills. I feel privileged to have won this contest and I am really looking forward to being in Bangkok and participating in the Castrol Asia Pacific Bikes Super Mechanic regional finals."
