

International Centennial Award to Dr.Kriti Bharti

Jodhpur: Saarthi Trust's managing trustee Dr. Kriti Bharti, who has been fighting against child marriages and making victims their child marriage annulled, has touched the new heights on International Level. Dr. Kriti will represent India in Zonta's International Conference at Colombo. Also she will be awarded with International Centennial award. And in one session she will be joining as a panel expert.

International Organization Zonta International is organizing an international conference to end child marriage from 4 to 6 October at Colombo. In this conference, many organizations and intellectuals will be gathering from all around the world to discuss towards ending of child marriages from all over the world and here Dr. Kriti Bharti will be representing sole from India. Conference will be having a solution based session for ending child marriage in which Dr. Kriti Bharti will join as a panel expert. While after Inaugural session, Dr. Kriti Bharti will be giving a speech on Child Marriage Annulment, a curative approach to end child marriage.

Also, Dr. Kriti will be awarded with International Centennial Award which is given to the distinguished personalities and in this year, Dr. Kriti Bharti has added it to India for her work of eradication of Child Marriage especially for the exclusive work of Child Marriage Annulment in India. India is getting this award after 100 years for efforts towards ending of child marriages. Before this, Dr. Kriti had represented India in 2015 at London.

It is important to mention that Dr. Kriti Bharti started a unique campaign against child marriage and made the first annulment of child marriage in India. She has found a place in the World Records of India and also in Limca Book of World Records and her works are also included in CBSE curriculum. She has annulled 40 child marriages in India and also prevented thousands of child marriages and made different records. For such bravery act Kriti Bharti is included in various World and National Records and also has been honored with international change maker award by girls not brides, felicitation in London, included in 100 inspiring women list of BBC and has also received various global awards, Marawar Ratna, Mewar Ratna and many national and international awards.

"There are many dangers in annulments and prevention of child marriages when communities come forward to defend this ritual. But we are determined to rectifying the past mistakes done by the society in form of child marriage. It is an honour to represent India at International level. My responsibility towards India and World has been increased while getting this International Award." - Dr. Kriti Bharti.

IIM Udaipur listed in the QS 2020 Rankings

Udaipur: Indian Institute of Management Udaipur (IIMU) joins the league of top global MBA schools by getting listed in the QS 2020 Masters in Management (MIM) Rankings. Until 2019, only three IIMs were part of the QS MIM rankings - IIM Ahmedabad, Bangalore, and Calcutta. In 2020, IIM Udaipur joins this prestigious list.

IIM Udaipur's flagship two-year MBA program is now in the 101+ category among the global 129 programs from 28 countries. The QS MIM rankings evaluate schools on Employability, Alumni Outcomes, Value for Money, Thought Leadership, and Class & Faculty Diversity. "Being in the top 129 programs in the world is an important milestone for a young Institute like IIM Udaipur and confirms that IIMU is well on its way to attaining its long-term objective of becoming a globally recognized management institute. Last year, IIMU became the youngest Institute in the country to receive the AACSB accreditation (Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business) and joined the elite group of 5 percent of the world's B-schools. These achievements are a testimony to IIMU's approach and practices which are comparable to the best management institutions in the world," said Pankaj Patel, Chairman of IIM Udaipur.

IIMU's two year MBA program is designed to be a transformational experience for students, developing them into socially responsible and highly skilled managers well launched on the path to leading their organization towards excellence. The MBA program provides a solid foundation in management theory and practice equal in quality to the best management programs in India and around the world. Students receive a thorough grounding in the key management disciplines with an emphasis on applying their knowledge ethically and responsibly. "It is a matter of pride for IIMU's program to receive this global recognition. It is an endorsement of our accomplished faculty, our talented students and exceptional alumni. We look forward to continuing to grow and build on our solid relationship with partners in all sectors of Indian industry", said Janat Shah, Director, IIM Udaipur.

Navaras is to maintain life: Meenakshi Bhatnagar

Udaipur: Meenakshi Bhatnagar, a renowned life coach and motivational speaker of the country, believes that the life of Navaras to the fullest plays life. Laughing has to do all the things. Any emotion is incomplete until it has lived. she narrated all the nine Ras through short videos. There is a need to understand the meaning of all these words: affection, understanding, respect, rituals, dialogue. Your children are very cultured.

She was addressing the 22nd annual session of Shri Mahavir Yuva Manch Sansthan Women's Cell as the chief guest at Terapant Bhawan on Friday.

Mrs Bhatnagar, who became famous about her family and social issues on YouTube, told through small video clips that you tell the child why your number is less and more but the child would never have asked that you have a younger and neighbor Why have a big car nearby? Because our children are very cultured.

Bhakti rasa means whenever, to say, to feel with the mind is also devotion. It is not necessary to sit in the temple for too long. Describing Vatsalya rasa said that upbringing never ends. This upbringing continues until its death. Never compare your children to anyone.

Explaining Shringar Ras, he said that we are here because of the head of the house. The men in the house are working for us. Love arises from makeup. Virah rasa is not what lovers are away from the girlfriend. Virah is also when the mother sends her son to battle. The worry that comes late when coming from the office at night, is raga but faith is in the mind. After this comes Veer Ras. Those who try never give up. Veer rasa does not just mean fighting on war. A perfect balance of heart and mind is also heroic. Karun Ras and then Humor Ras. Distribute smiles to people. When smiling can bring a good photo, then why not smile for life. Everyone is able to tell good about the raudra rasa.

She said that every rasa gives the definition of relationship. Learn not to live a relationship. It is best to become basil of flowerpot not banyan or peepal tree. Trying to solve the pain of others, karma rasa appears.

Rajkumar Fattawat, the chief patron of the institute, said that the organization took the call of the Prime Minister and resolved that he would pay attention to plastic ban and sanitation. The institute has decided to make Mamta Jain, Kalpana Vastavat, Lakshmi Kothari, Sonal Singhvi, Manju Mehta, Amita Dangi and Suman Damar as the brand ambassadors under the leadership of Vijayalakshmi Galundia. Calling for the women, he said that on Mahavir Jayanti, a Mahakumbh of one lakh people has been organized 7 times. It will be held once again in April in 2020. There will also be a mass wedding event. Similarly, for the Jain society under the auspices of the Indian Jain Sanghatana, a marriageable youth-youth introduction conference will be held on October 30. The Smart Girl training program has also been commendable. There have been 7 events so far. This program changes the direction and condition of life of girls. The program will be held on October 12 on the lines of Young MBA for 10 to 15-year-olds. Under the Sampodhan

Yojana, 42 families are provided ration for a month by the organization.

In the welcome address Mahendra Talesra, president of the institute, said that the gathering of so many women together and sitting quietly can only be the work of the Mahavir Yuva Manch Institute. Today, I got an opportunity to listen to the life coach of the country. It will undoubtedly prove to be helpful in life.

The chairman of the cell, Vijay Lakshmi Galundia, while giving information about the purpose of the convention and the activities of the last year, said that in today's era, we are struggling to save the relationship. Even if you have to bow down, go ahead but save the relationship. These social and family issues were discussed today by Meenakshi Bhatnagar. In six out of seven trips, the man comes forward but in one round the woman comes forward that if there is ever a crisis on the family, I will always stand ahead. He also informed about the work of the institute.

A lucky draw was also drawn at the end of the event in which the winners were awarded. The members of the cell performed an attractive song showcasing women empowerment. Operations were conducted by Amita Dangi. Minister of State Sonal Singhvi expressed gratitude. Earlier, the guests lit the lamp. The members of the cell presented the welcome song Jhoom Jhoom Har Kali, repeatedly saying. The members initially did the Navkar mantra, lovely.. Mangalacharan.

MYBYK bicycle services in Udaipur

Udaipur: More than a year after pioneering bicycle rental & sharing services from its station at Dewali, MYBYK with the support of Udaipur Smart City Limited is expanding its fully automated 'smartBYK' bicycle sharing services across Udaipur.

Speaking on the occasion, founder & CEO Arjit Soni said "We've already started our services at Fateh Sagar opp. Lalit and on Rani Road nr. Sanjay Gandhi Park. Over the coming month, we shall add more stations in the old city area such as Chandpole, Gulab Baug, Doodh Talai, Shitala Mata Chowk etc. Initially we are targeting the tourists. With the expanded network, tourists will now be able to pick up cycle from one station and drop at another. With this, we hope to reduce congestion within the old city area and help Udaipur move a step forward towards sustainable tourism"

Within a span of five years, the Ahmedabad headquartered company has expanded to cities like Mumbai, Jamnagar, Dahej and Mehsana and now aims to expand aggressively in Udaipur city as well.

It currently operates a fleet of 4,000 bicycles which have benefitted over three lakh users, and delivered approximately one million rides till date.

MYBYK users can rent cycles through smartBYK app for just Rs. 19/hour followed by Rs. 1/hour.

For those looking to rent long term, MYBYK offers its 'Hire' services at cheaper rentals with doorstep delivery.

BN University: - Fresher Party

Udaipur: The Fresher Party of the students of the constituent Faculty of Maths of Bhupal Nobles University was organized in the auditorium of the college, in which Chirag Joshi, Mr. Fresher, & Anushree Miss Fresher were crowned by Dean Prof. Renu Rathore, Dr. Ritu Tomar, Head of Department Dr. Priti Mehta & Dr. CP Singh. In the ceremony, the students lashed out at Rajasthani, Punjabi remix songs. Shashank Maru, Raveena Solanki were also crowned as Mr and Miss Farwell.

FIVE DAY PAINTING WORK SHOP

Udaipur: Under patronage of National Academy of Fine Arts and Udaipur Municipal Corporation, a five day work shop on painting is being conducted from 25 Sept till 29 Sept. The work shop is being held at Udaipur city Municipal Community Hall, Govardhan Vilas.

It was inaugurated by mayor Chandra Singh Kothari in presence of B P Bhatnagar, former Vice Chancellor. Other guests included Prof. Suresh Sharma, Prof. L L Verma, Prof. Shail Choyal, Dr. Mohan Shrimali, A C Damani, ex-RAS B R Bhati and Manik Arya.

This camp cum workshop is being coordinated by Dinesh Kothari, former RAS and a noted artist. The vote of thanks on opening of this work shop was delivered by Mahesh Dave, the local representative of UMC. Participating artists include Prof. Basant Kashyap, Dinesh Kothari, Naseem Ahmed, Dr Jagdish Kumawat, Dr Dharmveer Vasishth, Hemant Chitrakaar, Pushkar Lohar, Dinesh Upadhyay and Nirmal Yadaav.

Paintings drawn by the participating artists shall be exhibited for public in UMC on Monday, 30 September. It may be noted that under patronage of UMC and Mayor Chandrsingh Kothari, this is the first such work shop in Udaipur. The mayor assured that this workshop and exhibition will be organized by UMC next year as well.

Diwali Mela in Udaipur

Udaipur: In spite of code of conduct for upcoming Municipal elections, Dussehra-Diwali mela which is held every year will be held this year from 19th October to 2nd November. The fair will have cultural programmes for 5 days. As always, the fair will have various attractions apart from the cultural programmes which include special play zones for the kids. The fair will be held catering the needs of all hence it will have attractions like shopping for ladies, men, children and teenagers. Food zones and play zones will add to the attractions.

'Pharmacist - Day' held at Pacific College of Pharmacy

Udaipur: 'World Pharmacist Day' held at the Pacific College of Pharmacy. The program began with the oath-taking ceremony. Various events were organized in the program, including health rally, body checkup, blood donation, poster release and card making competition. In the poster release, Nidhi Aggarwal was the first, Tanishk Sharma, Anurag Pratap second and Karan Solanki third. Prachi Nahar, Nidhi Agarwal, and Prince Mevara remained first, second and third are in the card competition. This information was given by Principal Dr. Mrinal Sirsat.

Himanshu Bhatt awarded Ph.D.

Udaipur: Highlighting the importance of Sanskrit studies and teaching, Himanshu Bhatt was awarded PhD by Janardan Rai Nagar Rajasthan Vidyapeeth (Deemed-to-be University) on subject "Study of life value and aspiration level of Sanskrit on the Himanshu Bhatt completed his Ph.D. (research work) under the direction of Prof. Shashi Chittora, Principal and Dean, Lokmanya Tilak Teachers Training College, Dabok Udaipur.

Puppet workshop concludes

Udaipur: Daulat Singh Porwal, Honorary Secretary of the Bharatiya Lok Kala Mandal.

Udaipur informed that the puppet workshop held between 15th to 24th September 2019, under the joint aegis of the Bharatiya Lok Kala Mandal and North Central Zone Cultural Center, Allahabad, had concluded.

Director Dr. Laik Hussain said that the traditional puppet art of Rajasthan is famous not only in India but also in the world, which is becoming obsolete due to modern technology and social reasons. Keeping this objective in mind, a puppet manufacturing workshop was organized in from 15 September to 24 September, 2019.

He told that under the auspices of the Bharatiya Lok Kala Mandal and North Central Zone Cultural Center, Allahabad we had, organized the Phad Painting Workshop from 05 to 15 September 2019 and the puppet creation workshop from 15 to 24 September 2019. In which 100 participants participated.

The chief guest of the closing ceremony was Ajay Mehta, President, Vidya Bhawan, Riyaz Tehseen, Vice President, Board of Bharatiya Lok Kala Mandal, Sheel Dwivedi, Program In-charge, North Central Zone Cultural Center and Dr. Hemant Joshi, Arif Sama, Vice Principal, Vidya Bhawan Distinguished guests present, praised the participants after observing the exhibition of Phad paintings and puppets prepared in the workshop. Dr. Hussain informed that fifty school students were trained in puppet making and running by the artists of the Bharatiya Lok Kala Mandal at the Puppet Creation Workshop. Along with this, two miniature puppet plays Pannadhyay and Varju Kanjari were also staged in the workshop by the participants.

In the closing ceremony, the program in-charge Sheel Dwivedi, who came from North Central Zone Cultural Center, Prayagraj, welcomed the visiting guests, instructors and parents and said that the Center for the successful organization of this workshop, the Indian Board of Public Art and Vidya Bhawan.

He also said that Center Director Indrajit Singh Grover has given assurance that such workshops will be organized further. He also informed that on the closing occasion, distinguished guests gave a citation to the trainees participating in puppet making and fad painting.

Tennis shaped lump removed

Udaipur: Surgeons at the Pacific Institute of Medical Sciences (PIMS), Umrada have successfully operated a ball-shaped lump from the clitoris of a woman.

PIMS Chairman Ashish Aggarwal said that a woman resident of Salumbar was brought to PIMS and examined due to irregular menstruation and abdominal pain problems. Investigations revealed a tennis ball-shaped lump in the woman's clitoris. On this, the chairman of the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology Dr. P.K. Bhatnagar Under the direction of, the experts Dr. Kanika Chandra, Dr. Komal Inani, Dr. Archana Pateria pulled out the lump along with the clitoris by binocular method (TLH) without making an incision. Shri Aggarwal informed that such operations are done at very low rates in PIMS.

Kathak book poster released

Udaipur: The poster release ceremony of Kathak book to be published in collaboration with Kathak Ashram Udaipur and M square Production & Events held at Ashoka Palace.

Chandrakala Chaudhary of Kathak Ashram said that the ceremony started with Ganapati Vandana staged by Narayan Gandharva Chandrakala Chaudhary jointly.

Chandra Kala later told that there are eight classical Hindustani dances in India. Kathak is one of them. The description of Kathak style based on Jaipur Gharana has been included in this book and this book will be distributed all over the world so that all international students can also benefit from it. So far, about 10,000 students have been trained in Kathak by Chandrakala Chaudhary of Kathak Ashram.

Mukesh Madhwani, CEO of M.Square said that most of the dance styles in Hindi films nowadays are based on Kathak. This book will prove to be important for students learning Kathak.

Celebrated Dandiya festival with great pomp

Udaipur: The Matushree Club organized the Dandiya Utsav at the Oriental Palace Resort. Kaushalya Gattani, National Treasurer of Maheshwari Samaj Program graced the ceremony. Asha Kothari convenor said that Dandiya Raas and song competition was organized on Navratri.

In which women participated vigorously. Awards were distributed to all contestants. The program was successfully conducted under the leadership of the President of the club, Abha Jhanwar and Secretary Sunita Sharma.

Master Pravar Bhardwaj selected

Udaipur: Mst. Pravar Bhardwaj of Ryan International School, Udaipur has been selected at State Level in U-17 Cricket Tournament League. He is going to showcase his talent at Karoli & present the school at State Level.