Development lies in unity - Governor

In the Governor's address, several important announcements were mentioned while congratulating the Government for various notable works done by the Government in the last 1 year.

The Governor congratulated the people on the New Year and Republic Day, congratulating all the freedom fighters, policemen and the Indian Army. He said that Adarsh Gram will be selected on every Gram Panchayat under Mahatma Gandhi Adarsh Gram Yojana. In the Governor's address, the Government schemes to provide relief to the common man, he first mentioned about Healthy Rajasthan, in which it said that the 'Healthy Rajasthan Law' should be made to make the general public healthy. He informed that Janata clinics are being opened for the public and the State Government is arranging free treatment for serious diseases like cancer, heart, kidney, liver etc. Apart from this, relief will be provided to the public by opening a medical college at every District headquarter. He also informed about opening of various schools for up gradation of schools and studies in English medium will be done soon. He said that the State Government is committed to educate the girl students through English language and to keep them aligned with the whole world. He said that the State Government is making special efforts to enrich Sanskrit language and in this direction Sanskrit language will be upgraded through education in schools. He informed that the Government is making efforts to provide pure drinking water in rural areas and many works are also being done by the Government to increase ground water level and conserve more rain water. He informed about 838 MW increase in power capacity and 1099 MW increase in solar power. He said that special relief is being provided to farmers and rural people by issuing new connections in rural areas.

The benefit of crop loan waiver scheme, pension scheme and other schemes are being continuously given to the public by the Rajasthan government. Rajasthan has become the leader in the entire country by waiving the loans of 22 lakh farmers. He said that public information portal has been opened by the Government and free Jan Aadhaar cards are being made. He also informed about running incentive scheme to promote new small and micro industries. Apart from this, the Government has contributed to road construction and development by spending 7325 crores. He said that 1000 villages will be connected with roads in future. Along with this, the Government also gave information about the purchase of blue-line buses and plans to run electric buses in future. He said that the Government is providing relief to the poor by distributing wheat at the rate of ₹ 1.

He said that pension has been increased from ₹ 500 to ₹ 750 for widows and abandoned women aged 60 years. Simultaneously, the 'Mahila Shakti Nidhi' has been formed and the Government is also providing facilities for transgender and people with disabilities. In order to give incentives to sportspersons, the State Government said to give 2% reservation to players in State Services. He informed that a one-day farmers conference was organized in which 28000 farmers participated and got information about their problems related to agriculture and new farming practices.

The Governor's address said that the State Government is trying to arouse public confidence in the police. He said that the State Government is working determinedly to raise the standard of living of the people of the State and strengthen unity. Cooperative elections are necessary for the best creation of democracy - Cooperative Minister Shri Anjana After the Governor's address, Cooperation Minister Uday Lal Anjana mentioned in his speech the benefits of public welfare schemes in 13 months of the Government. He said that celebrating the National festival is a matter of pride, it symbolizes that we are free. It is a matter of pride that India is the largest republic in the world. He said that honoring District Collector Chetan Deora by the State Government on this occasion is a matter of pride and it is the Government's step towards strengthening democracy. He counted the achievements of the Cooperative Department and said that Rajasthan is trying to move ahead in cooperatives. Debt distribution and loan waiver are the best achievements of the Government in which the Government has got the biggest success by waiving the loans of 22 lac farmers. He said that he is doing good work in cooperatives as a farmer and due to this he has got an important department like Cooperative Department. He said that development in the true sense will happen when farmers will develop because cooperative is a department associated with farmers. He said that this year they will try to have cooperative elections after Panchayat Raj elections so that democracy can be strengthened.

He recalled the freedom fighters of India in his speech, then the Chief Guest Cooperative Minister Uday Lal Anjana and District Collector Chetan Deora honored 73 best performing talents at the District level.

After this, 1000 young children from 40 schools gave the message of 'Building a healthy Nation with a healthy body' by performing various exercises. Mahatma Gandhi English Medium Senior Secondary School gave a lovely performance on Rajasthani dance symbolizing communal harmony. Immediately after this, beautiful tableaux of all departments at the District level attracted the attention of the guests.
