Songs of Rebellion will be Sung in the Times of Suppression : Dr. Syeda Hameed

Udaipur: "Julmaton ke dour mein bhi geet gaye jayenge", Songs of Rebellion will be Sung in the Times of Suppression, said Padma Shri Dr. Syeda Hameed, former member of the Planning Commission of India and former Chancellor of Maulana Azad Urdu University. She was addressing the inaugural session of the National Seminar on Form , Technique and Concerns of Indian Drama in English organized by the department of English, M.V.Shramjeevi College, Janardan Rai Nagar Rajasthan Vidyapeeth.

Dr. Hameed said that it is her bond of pain " Dard Ka Rishta" which brought her to Udaipur. She said that theatre is a powerful means of expression of the truth of an age. Presenting the key note address Prof. Rajul Bhargava, former Professor of University of Rajasthan and Chief Editor of a prestigious journal Voices said that Indian English Drama owes a lot to Drama in regional languages of India and the mythological and folk elements spread in abundance in cultural life of this country. She said that drama is also a powerful tool of registering protest. Presenting the concept of the seminar organizing secretary of the seminar Prof. Hemendra Chandalia said that Indian English drama began as a shadow of the western drama but soon it evolved its own indigenous form and there emerged a galaxy of writers who are well known across the world for their outstanding plays. He said that this seminar is a tribute to Girish Karnad who was not just the most outstanding playwright but represented the rationalist school of thought in Karnataka which included U.R. Ananthmurthy, Prof. M.M.Kalburgy, Gaury Lankesh and others. The special guest of the function Dr. Laiq Hussain, Director of Bhartiya Lok Kala Mandal , said that theatre is essentially a movement which involves all the people through performance. Prof. N.S.Rathore , Vice Chancellor of Maharana Pratap University of Agriculture and Technology said that drama should be taken to the masses and plays based on contemporary social issues like unemployment, corruption etc. should be written and staged. Prof. S.S.Sarangdevot , presiding over the inaugural session said that Drama has a long history in India. Bharat Muni's Natyashastra is a treatise on Drama which is a comprehensive guide to the performance and writing of plays. In the beginning Prof. Suman Pamecha , Principal of M.V.Shramjeevi College welcomed the guests.

Prof. Mukta Sharma, Director of the Seminar introduced the guests while Dr. Sharada Bhatt offered a vote of thanks. The programme was convened by Dr. Rukhsana Saifee. In the inaugural session the souvenir of the seminar , book by Prof. H.S.Chandalia titled "Killing Gandhi, Living Gandhi", Book by Dr. Rukhsana Saifee titled " 21st Century Diaspora: A Study of Chitra Bannerjee Divakaruni's Fiction", book by Dr. Anant Dadheech titled " Globalization and Indian Women Novelists" and book by L.S.Rathore titled " Dancing the Light" were released by the guests. The first plenary session was addressed by Dr.Karna Singh who spoke about the folk theatre in North India. This session was chaired by Dr.K.S.Kang. In the technical sessions fifty five papers were presented by delegates from Jammu, Lucknow, Mahendragarh, Haryana, Kolkata, Hyderabad, Jabalpur, Neemuch, Ahmedabad, Delhi, and several districts of Rajasthan.

In the evening a play "Peer Parayee Jane Re" was performed by a group from Delhi called Hamari Urdu Mohabbat at Bhartiya Lok Kala Mandal. The play based on the life and teachings of Mahatma Gandhi mesmerized the audience. In this function the magazine of Bhartiya Lok Kala Mandal " Rangayan" was released.

On the second day of the seminar a plenary was held in which Prof. Satish Harit of Jai Narayan Vyas University, Jodhpur talked about the concerns and techniques in the plays of Mahesh Dattani. In technical sessions research papers on Girish Karnad, Badal Sircar Vijay Tendulkar, Habeeb Tanveer, Mahesh Dattani, Cowasjee , Mallika Sarabhai, Natyashastra, Folk and Tribal Theatre etc.were presented. The valedictory session was chaired by Prof.Suman Pamecha.Addressing the valedictory session as Chief guest Dr. Sanjay Singh from O.P.Jindal University, Raigadh, Chhattisgarh said " Sarhadon pe mat vaqt zaya kijieye, parindon ki tarah aya jaya keejieye".

It was an appeal to cross borders and work for universal brotherhood. The guest of honour Dr.S.C.Hajela from Lucknow sid that the drama in English today is closely linked to the contemporary though the form could be drawn from history or mythology.

The director of the seminar Prof. Mukta Sharma said that Vineet Soneji, Nardeo Singh, Dr. Lala Ram Jat and Mrs.Lata Gurjar Gour were felicitated . Dr. Sharda Bhatt welcomed the guests. Organizing secretary Prof.H.S.Chandalia offered a vote of thanks and expressed his gratitude to RSMM, SBI, Rana Poonja College Ogna, Aadhar Classes, Ascent Career Point, Bhartiya Lok Kala Mandaland Astha Sansthan for their support in organizing the event.

Restricting sites is not the solution: Shefali Zari Wala

* After Bigg Boss season 13, Shefali Zari Wala came to spend time in Rami Royal of Udaipur *

Udaipur: Banning social sites and adult sites for female atrocities and mistreatment of girls will not solve the problem. Men and youth will have to change their thinking. Today Saraswati is not respected anywhere, In Laxmi Road, it is seen asking, In Navratri, we worship Mata Rani and with the same mother form we carry out events like misconduct and atrocities. This is just a result of thinking. As long as there is no change in the thinking of the common man, then it cannot be stopped with rules and regulations.

Girl Shaifali Jariwala said this on Saturday in Udaipur. She came here on the occasion of Hotel Rami Royal in partnership with the Rami Group of Hotels and Amangiri Hotels & Resorts based in Balicha. Shaifali said that women should be educated and raise their voice. Studying further benefits. Do not bear the torture Those who suffer persecution are foolish. Enduring atrocities is a crime. Always fight for the honor of women. Women should protest if any woman is insulted. On the question of women safety, Schaafali said that if any Prime Minister till now about women safety in the country If sensitive, then he is PM Narendra Modi.

They talk of women safety and women empowerment on every front. For this reason, women in Delhi, Mumbai and other metro cities are now roaming without fear. Due to the Prime Minister, the police is taking strict steps to protect the women. This is the result of Modi's visionary thinking. PM Modi has no match on women's safety.
