

The Chief Minister of Rajasthan reached at Mahatapasvi Mahashraman for blessings

Spiritual happiness can be attained by Satsang: Acharya Mahashraman

Bhilwara (pawan Garg) : State Chief Minister Shri Ashok Gehlot, Assembly Speaker Shri CP Joshi, Rajasthan

Pradesh Congress President and Education Minister Govind Singh Dotasara, and many other dignitaries reached Bhilwara where the leader of non-violence, Shantidoot Acharyashree Mahashramanji Ekadashmadhi Shasta of Jain

Shwetambar Terapanth Dharmasangh, performing historic Chaturmas in Aditya Vihar of Bhilwara.

Dignitary leaders, along with the head of the state, got blessings after having the darshan of Acharyashree.

After receiving the prayers, there was a sequence of brief conversations with Acharyashree of the Chief Minister.

Acharya Shree informed him about the concluding program of the non-violence journey, arrival in Jaipur after Chaturmas, and the resolutions of the non-violence journey. The Chief Minister expressed his desire to attend Acharyashree's arrival in Jaipur in January and attend the Ahimsa Yatra concluding the program. After receiving encouraging inspiration and good wishes from Acharyashree, he again left for his destination.

Earlier in the morning, in the main discourse program of the daily, Sadhvivarya Sadhvi Sambuddhyashaji inspired the devotees with 'Mahashramana Samavasaran'.

After that, while providing the sacred path, the great ascetic Acharya Shree Mahashramanji said there is great importance of Satsang in a man's life. Now Bhilwara Chaturmas is in the direction of prosperity.

Chaturmas is a reasonable period of Satsangi. Consciousness can be attained from Satsang. Acharya Shree gave the example of Kumarashraman Keshi and Raja Pradesh and said that if a monk can explain and the person who understands also has the ability, then the condition and direction of a life can also change.

If Kumarashraman Keshi could explain, Raja Pradesh could also understand him, so it became a matter of welfare. It is a remarkable thing to make someone strong, to bring someone on the path of good faith. In this way, man can make his life happy by getting inspiration from Satsang.

After the Mangal discourse, the process of presentation of auspicious feelings to the people of Bhilwara started.

In this, the convener of the media committee, Mr. Nirmal Sutaria, Mr. Yogesh Chandalia of the traffic system, Mr. Sumit Nahar of the publicity system, Mr. Pradeep Aanchaliya of the hotel system, Mrs. Pramila Gokhru, Rajendra Samsukha of the pandal arrangement, Mr. Sunil Talesara, Mrs. Vijaya Surana, Shri Suresh Chordia of security arrangements, Shri Mahavir Lodha expressed their hearts.

Mrs. Vanitha Bhanawat and the teachers of Gyanshala gave their expression through song.
