

Udaan', Kanjoos' & 'Luka-Chupi' were performed on the concluding day of TARAASH 2022

• 23 days production-oriented workshop concluded with three play performances

• 55 people participated & certificates were given to all

Udaipur: Creativity is nothing but a mindset free. Every holiday season Natyansh organizes a production-oriented workshop, Taraash. This workshop is open to people of all ages. We work together to learn the art of theatre. At the end of the workshop, we present the hard work put together in the form of a play in which each participant gets to perform and experience the stage.

Participants get to explore their creative selves and bring them out through the various activities and games of theatre. Theatrical evening in the conclusion of Taraash 2022 was organized on June 11 at Maharashtra Bhawan. Three different batches of Taraash performed three extremely engaging plays.

The first batch of 18 little children of 'Apna Jatan Kendra' who performed the play 'Udaan', written and directed by Mohammad Rizwan Mansuri. The play talks about childhood. It is the most beautiful time of our life. At that time, some children spend their childhood in play, some in studies, and some laboring. Childhood is when we can dream and think in which direction we want to give flight to our dreams. The bitter truth of this society is that even today, the evils of child trafficking and child labor exist. This play talks about such situations in which childhood is sacrificed. The children in the play keep their dreams and childhood alive despite this challenging situation. Some plan to become dancers, while others want to improve their conditions by becoming police officers. Children do not give up even in difficult situations and continue to dream. Komal Srivastava played the role of child labor, Vidya Kunwar Jhala, Vijay Meena, Chirag Verma, Deepti Srivastava, Ashok Meena, owner of the factory was, Mahipal Singh Panwar & Preet Bhat, Officer was Kiran Kunwar Panwar & Harshita Kunwar, Inspector was Nirma Kumari & Madhu Meena, story narrators were Monica Meena, Hemlata Kunwar & Amrita Meena, the servant, was Karan Singh Panwar and Rajveer Singh Jhala & Divya Kunwar played role of a farmer.

The second play of the evening was 'Kanjoos' directed by Ashfaq Noor Khan Pathan. A translated script of Moliere's 'The Miser.' The play is based on 60 years old Mirza Sahab, who is a miser. He is a very wealthy person in the city who lends money on interest but is such a miser in terms of expenses that even before is in love with the girl whom Mirza Sahab intends to marry. In contrast, he wants to marry after a long time. Sagar sets out on a journey with his wife Ganga and two twins. Both their twins are named Anand. Coincidentally, his servant also has twin children whose names are Veer. Family members get separated in an accident. One pair of Anand and Veer, along with their mother, and the other with their father, start living in different cities. Coincidentally, both Anand and Veer meet in the same town.

Khera and the children were Kevalya Jain, Joy, Akhil Jain, Dhani Jain, Heeral Gaur,

Due to this, such complicated and funny situations arise. Only when the pairs meet face-to-face does everyone get to know the reality. Mukul Khandaand Bhuvan Jain performed twin pair of Anand, and the twins' pair of Veer was Pranay Joshi and Mahaveer Sharma. Javed Khan and Anju Soni were parents of Anand. The wife of one of the Anand was Urvasi Kanwari, and Nirmita Kumawat & Pooja Sharma played the role of her sisters. Deepak Joshi was Mukhiya of the village.

Harsh Dubey & Jomy Jojo

played the character of were people in business. Naman Mishra was in the role of a Jeweler, and Riya Nagdev was Angeli, who gave her ring to Anand. Backstage, Isha Jain played music, Yogeeta Sisodia did makeup, lights & sound were operated by Ashfaq Noor Khan Pathan, and the stage was managed by Amit Shrimali, Tofik Khan, Ratan Sethia, Brijesh Khatri, and Piyush Gurunani.

The audience incredibly received all the performances. From the start to the end of the show, the house was full of audience laughter and cheers, motivating and rewarding the team for their hard work and dedication. The participants' happy faces were evidence of all the fun they had had in the workshop. In retrospect their experience, they said that they learned a lot from this workshop, made outstanding bonds with people, and had a fantastic time exploring the art of theatre on stage and among themselves.

- Rekha Sesodia

serving water to the guests, he thinks twice. He loves wealth more than his relationships. That's why he wants to marry his daughter Azra to 50-year-old Aslam Sahab and his son Farooq to a widow lady.

Going through the ups and downs of love, misery, and Mirza Sahab's money that gets stolen, this story tickles the audience by creating many humorous situations. Azra is in love with Nasir, and Farooq a young girl, Maryam. Yash Shakhdeewee played the title role of Mirza Shakhawat Being. Other casts include Astha Nagda as Azra, Mahaveer Sharma as Nasir, Bhuvan Jain as Farruk, Navika Talreja as Mariyam, Kushagra Rajan as Nambu, Nisha Gaur as Farzeena, Jatin Kaushal sulfur, Ishaan Kothari as Dalaal, Ganesh Devasias Aslam Sahab, Lakshita Sukhwals Hawaldar, Navsari Paliwal as Jaswant Kumawat & Sauranshi Karwa.

The last play of the evening was Luka-Chupi. They were directed by Rekha Sisodia, the play Luka-Chupi is based on the famous play 'Comedy of Errors' by William Shakespeare.

The story of this play is based on two pairs of twins who get separated in their childhood. Very humorous situations arise when they meet

Community Policing to Build Awareness and Trust Program

Udaipur (Dr. Munesh Arora): Under the 'Community Policing to Build Awareness and Trust Program,' conducted in collaboration with the Police and UNICEF, in the auditorium located on the Reserve Police Line, the training program on the Child Welfare Police Officers of the district on Juvenile Justice Act-2015 and Protection of Children from Sexual Offenses Act-2012, was organized.

The training workshop was inaugurated by Dr. Shailendra Pandya, a member of the Rajasthan State Commission for Protection of Child Rights, and Additional District Collector Udaipur (city) Prabha Gautam. Additional Superintendent of Police, Abhay Command, Roshan Patel, was also in the program.

At the beginning of the workshop, Dr. Shailendra

Pandya, while addressing the officers of the department and child welfare police officers, was instructed to use the information given in the field and gave necessary instructions for the cooperation of all the departments in the child labor eradication week. Addressing the participants, ADM Gautam instructed to take action in coordination with all the departments to ensure child protection in the district and with a better action plan for rehabilitation.

Rehabilitation of rescued children is necessary.

In the workshop, UNICEF's Child Protection Advisor Sindhu Binjitt informed the participants about the workshop's objectives while providing information about child protection-related programs in collaboration with Police Department and UNICEF. He suggested developing an action plan for the cooperation of all the departments in rehabilitating the rescued children and cooperating with the voluntary organizations. In the workshop, Kuldeep Parihar, Special Public Prosecutor of the Special Court, Pocho Court Udaipur, provided information related to the research to be done by the police officers in the cases to be registered under the Protection of Children from Sexual Offenses Act-2012 to the child welfare police officers.

Judge Mahendra Kumar Dave resolved the queries.

In the workshop, Additional District and Sessions Judge Bhilwara Mahendra Kumar Dave taught child welfare police officers the role of stakeholders under the Protection of Children from Sexual Offenses Act 2012 and Juvenile Justice Act 2015. He imparted training on research procedures, reporting, and exceptional legal situations relating to sexual offenses against children.

During the workshop, the Child Welfare Police Officers asked questions on the problems faced in cases about children, which the judge answered.

In the workshop, Bhojraj Singh, representative of voluntary organization Asra Vikas Sansthan, Vikalp Sansthan Shamina Bano, Anti-Human Trafficking Cell in-charge Jeevan Ram, Police Inspector Reserve Police Line Sumer Singh, etc. asked questions regarding crimes and procedures related to children.

The judge present in the program gave detailed information about various sections through stories and incidents in the Acts. UNICEF Advisor Sindhu Binjitt suggested the operation of child help desks at police stations, uploading the details of missing children on the portal, and compliance with instructions given as per training at the police station level.

Additional SP gave information about child-friendly procedures at the police station level.

At the end of the workshop, the Additional Superintendent of Police Patel thanked the Child Welfare Police Officers while giving guidelines regarding the conduct of child-friendly procedures at the police station level. In the workshop, representatives of the anti-human trafficking cell, Govind Singh of the Anti-Human Trafficking Cell, Gayatri Seva Sansthan's Nitin Paliwal and team, freedom fighter VP Singh Sanstha's Nilima Barna, Manu Seva Sansthan, etc. were present. Akash Upadhyay, Bharat Khokhar, and Sapna Rathod of the program provided support in organizing the workshop.

The Pacific & GHH Shared cooperation

Udaipur: The contract between Germany GHH and the pacific university was signed on 10.06.2022, under which training of diploma and engineering students of pacific will be given by the company's employees in the company.

The company is a 130 years old company. It is famous for manufacturing loaders, dump trucks, scalars, dumpers, etc., vehicles for the world's mining with state-of-the-art safety and technology. It is affiliated with the Schmidt Cranz Group, which has 25 countries. The company has this agreement with the only Pacific University in India. This will be the division's most significant achievement for engineering students. After training in the company, one can get employment in any reputed company world wide.

Pacific University and G.H. Together have signed this MoU to help students get the best employment. Advanced Training Technology (ATT), which G.H.H develops. It is a subsidiary of the group, and it is located in Mochila Mines and Zavar Mines of Hindustan Zinc, where students will be able to take training. This course will be in 3 levels in which training will be given on the campus of Pacific University and in the company. After completing this training, the students will receive a certificate from the Indo-German Chamber, which is valid everywhere in the world. GHH in contract Germany's Carsten, G.H.H. Managing Director of India Shri Rajeshwar Singh and Vice Chancellor of Pacific University Prof. KK. Dave signed. On this occasion, Shri Aman Aggarwal (Executive Director) Mr. Pacific Group) was also present. He described it as a job-oriented course for the students of Pacific University. In which students will get to learn by being introduced to the state-of-the-art technology by the German company. G.H.H. The company's business development manager, Florin, said that this is a golden opportunity for the students of Pacific University, where G.H. The company will invest about 15 crores for training, and students will be able to take advantage of it and G.H.H. The company's technician supporter Marcus said it is very effective for skill development and employment. University Vice Chancellor Prof. KK. Dave explained in detail about this contract. The program started with the lighting of the lamp. Pro. Hemant Kothari welcomed the guests. Pro. Tanveer Ahmed Qazi, Neeraj Shrimali, and all the Deans and Directors of the University were present.

Water Heroes webinar

Udaipur: The first webinar of water heroes across the country was organized by the Union Ministry of Jal Shakti from 11 am to 1.30 am, in which suggestions were invited for the coming rain from all the water heroes and for increasing the participation of people in water conservation.

Tell water harvesting techniques so that more and more people can absorb this rainwater into the falling groundwater. The city's water hero Dr. PC Jain suggested that a water conservation committee should be formed under the chairmanship of the District Collector, and a workshop should be organized for people learning rainwater harvesting. The local bodies should be made affordable, simple, and sustainable rain. Former Chairman of Dungarpur Municipality and Water Hero, KK Gupta, suggested that water meters should be installed in every house so that water usage can be controlled and revive the dead tube wells and hand pumps by recharging the roofs with rainwater. It is cheap, simple, and affordable. Sustainable technology should be adopted as they have done in Dungarpur city. The webinar was organized for 136 water heroes of the country. The webinar was presided over by Sanjay Awasthi, Joint Secretary, Department of Water Resources Ministry of Jal Shakti.

Agriculture service center, road and retaining wall inaugurated in Zavar

Udaipur: District Collector Tarachand Meena inaugurated Zavar Mata Krishi Vikas Kendra in the Zavar Mines area. Collector Meena said that with the initiative taken by Hindustan Zinc, farmers would benefit from modern agriculture and technology and the scheme of agro-processing, and their income would increase.

In the program, farmers were given detailed information about government schemes and loans to join processing units and start small units to get a reasonable product price. Collector Meena was made aware of the possibilities of the honey processing unit in the Zavar area. He appreciated the projects by Hindustan Zinc for rural development, women empowerment through self-help groups, and the work for farmers.

On this occasion, Zavar Sarpanch Prakash Meena, Agriculture Deputy Director Sudhir Kumar Verma, Horticulture Deputy Director Dr. KN Singh, Livestock Deputy Director Dr. Bhardwaj, BAIF Chief Program Manager Surendra Vedia, IBU Zavar CEO Vinod Kumar, Hindustan Zinc's CSR Head Anupam Nidhi, Zavar Mines Mazdoor Union General Secretary Lalu Ram, Working President Nagaram and farmers were present.

Farmers got support from Samadhan Project.

Under the Samadhan project of Hindustan Zinc, 740 farmers are associated with this Krishi Vikas Kendra in Zavar. Of these, 40 percent are women, and 37 FIGs are connected through Zavar Mata Krishi Vikas Kendra. This is a unique program through which 5 Krishi Vikas Kendras have been established. With this, farmer beneficiaries will get the benefit of Krishi Seva Kendra. According to their demand, crop seeds, fertilizers, pesticides, etc., will be available to the farmers associated with this center at reasonable rates through FPOs. Similarly, FPOs have been set up at Debari, Rajsamand, Chittorgarh, and Bhilwara, in addition to Zavar.

The government should take care of the sails (dams) of the lakes

Udaipur: The lake lovers have urged the government to check all the barriers in the division for their pre-monsoon maintenance and strength. Get it repaired under the supervision of experts. In the lake dialogue held on Sunday, Dr. Anil Mehta, Tej Shankar Paliwal, and Nand Kishore Sharma said that the Pal (dam) of many lakes, including Fatehsagar, Pichola, Badi, Udaysagar are 300 to 400 years old. It is necessary to take regular care of them.

Before the dialogue, polythene floating from the water area, rotten food items filled in bags, alcohol water bottles, and weeds were removed by doing Shramdaan at Hanuman Ghat of Pichola. Lake lover Drupad Singh, senior citizen Mohan Singh Chauhan, Digambar Singh of Uttarakhand society, Dilshan, and local citizens participated in Shramdaan.

Madaria Bhawan inaugurated

Udaipur: The inauguration of the fully equipped air-conditioned newly constructed 'Madaria Bhawan' in Chitrakoot Nagar by Shri Vardhaman Madaria Oswal Sansthan Udaipur was completed today by the lotus blessings of famous social worker Dharamchand Derasaria.

The institute released Contact Sheet-2022. This air-conditioned building has 15 rooms, two big kitchens of five thousand and three and a half thousand feet, and a three-story building. They are giving all the information about which Ghevachand Jain said that 110 members of the organization in Udaipur live in 29 villages.

The program was presided over by Kundan Bhatevara, and Chief Guest Gehri Lal Kothari and Pukhraj of Mumbai were present. The program was specially addressed by the All India Pracharak of Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh, Hastimal Hiran. Patron of the institute Dhulchand Pokharna, President Babulal Gandhi, Vice President Balchand Ganna, Treasurer Ladulal Mandot, Ahmedabad's social worker Mithalal Pitalia, etc. were present. In the end, the Minister of the Institute, Arun Mandot, thanked everyone. Rajendra Derasaria thanked all the dignitaries and their colleagues for making the program successful.

Choksi Group installed an RO plant in Khelgaon

Udaipur: An RO plant under CSR by Choksi Group at Khelgaon, Chitrakoot Nagar, Udaipur. District Sports Officer Shakeel Hussain said that the Vigilance Group had made this arrangement for the drinking water facility of the players and common people coming here under social concern. For this, he thanked the Choksi group.

Nadia and Kalpana Pardeshi were selected for the post of APRO

Udaipur: Nevada Pardeshi, daughter of senior journalist and litterateur Late Anupam Pardeshi and daughter-in-law Kalpana Pardeshi, have been selected together as Assistant Public Relations Officer (APRO) in the Assistant Public Relations Officer Recruitment Examination. Anupam Pardeshi's son Pravesh Pardeshi is already an officer of Rajasthan Public Relations Service and is presently serving as Information and Public Relations Officer Udaipur. His whole family has been associated with literature writing and journalism. With the selection of both the daughter and daughter-in-law of the family, the entire foreign family will be working in the Rajasthan Public Relations Service.

The recruitment examination for the 76 vacant posts of Assistant Public Relations Officer for the Department of Information and Public Relations was conducted by the Rajasthan Staff Selection Board on April 24 in Jaipur, the final result of which was released by the Board on Thursday evening. It is noteworthy that the posts of APRO were vacant in the Information and Public Relations Department for a long time. With the time-bound completion of the recruitment examination by the state government, on the one hand, the problem of shortage of officers in the department will also be overcome. On the other hand, it will also help give wide publicity to the government's welfare activities, programs, and schemes.

Financial assistance to football player Nidhi Vasita

Udaipur: Udaipur Lakecity Ladies Circle 125 has financially assisted selected female football player Nidhi Vasita in the National Tournament Rugby Championship 2022 to improve her fitness and sports training level. Circle chairperson Deepti Murdia said that Nidhi Vasita was honored on this occasion. Mrs. Murdia informed that the circle is proud of Nidhi Vasita, and wished her a bright future.

The role of Agri Input dealers in agricultural development - Dr. Rathore

Udaipur: The inauguration ceremony of the third batch of one-year Agri Input Dealers Diploma in Entomology Department of Rajasthan Agricultural College, a constituent of Maharana Pratap University of Agriculture and Technology, concluded.

Honorable Chief Guest of this program, M.P.U.T Vice Chancellor Dr. Narendra Singh Rathore, said in his speech that if Agri Input Dealer should keep ten points in mind, then India's agriculture will present its invaluable contribution in establishing new dimensions! Input dealers should be good dispatchers, guides, representatives, consultants, coordinators, visionaries, administrators, good teachers, and planners to contribute to the country's development.