India celebrates 76th Independence Day : PM Modi hoists National Flag and addresses nation from ramparts of Red Fort

@narendramodin dia is celebrating its 76th Independence Day today. Prime Minister Narendra Modi led the nation in celebrating the Day from the ramparts of the Red Fort by hoisting the National Flag. The Tricolour received a 'Rashtriya Salute'. The hoisting of the National Flag was synchronised with the 21 Gun Salute fired by the valiant gunners of the elite 8711 Field Battery (Ceremonial). The Prime Minister exuded pride that after 75 years, people heard the proud sound of a Made-in-India weapon in the Independence Day gun salute. In his ceremonial address, the Prime Minister said that this Day is being celebrated not just in India, but in every corner of the world the Tiranga is flying with pride and honour. The Prime Minister expressed gratitude to great leaders like Mahatma Gandhi, Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose, Dr BR Ambedkar and Vinayak Damodar Savarkar.

The Prime Minister said as the nation pays respects to freedom fighters, there is a need to remember their vision and dream for India during the Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav. He said the nation is grateful to Bhagat Singh, Rajguru, Ramprasad Bismil, Rani Laxmi Bai, and all other freedom fighters who shook the foundations of the British Empire. He also saluted the architects of free India including Jawaharlal Nehru, Ram Manohar Lohia and Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel. He highlighted that India has been home to great thinkers like Swami Vivekananda, Sri Aurobindo and Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore. He added that Adwasi freedom fighters such as Birsa Munda, Tirot Singh and Alluri Sitarama Raju played a pivotal role in keeping the freedom struggle alive in every corner of India.

The Prime Minister said, Indian soil has the power that despite many challenges, it did not stop, did not bow down and kept on moving forward.

The Prime Minister emphasised that for growth of New India, there is a need to ensure inclusive development across the nation. He said this was a vision held dear by Mahatma Gandhi.

The Prime Minister said, Jai Anusandhan is to be read with the slogan Jai Jawan, Jai Kisan and Jai Vigyan.

The Prime Minister said, Har Ghar Tiranga has been an example of the entire nation coming together to celebrate the spirit of this glorious country. Mr Modi said COVID has been an example of this common consciousness, where citizens came together.

The Prime Minister said that as India celebrates 75 years of Independence, there is a need to now move with a renewed focus and resolve for the next 25 years. He said, there is a need to focus on the Five Resolves. These are Developed India, Removing every ounce of Slave Mentality, Pride for glorious heritage, Unity and Fulfilling Citizen's Duties. The Prime Minister said that when India flies high, she can provide solutions to the entire world. He said Nature has been a pivotal part of India's heritage and country has traditions and practices that will help in combating climate change. Mr Modi said equality is the cornerstone of India's progress and people should be united through the mantra of India First. He requested every Indian to change the mentality toward women in everyday life. He added that the pride of Nari Shakti will play a vital role in fulfilling the dreams of India.

Mr. Modi said that Aatmanirbhar Bharat is a public movement that should be taken forward. He urged people to follow Sri Aurobindo's mantra of 'Swadeshi se Swaraj, Swaraj se Suraj'. He said Aatmanirbhar Bharat is a public movement that must be taken forward. Prime Minister said the nation should come together to defeat the evils of corruption and nepotism. He said there is a need to fight against corruption with all the strength. He highlighted that in the last eight years, the use of Aadhar, Direct Benefit Transfer and mobile were used to find two lakh crore of black money. Independence Day is being celebrated with full enthusiasm in all the states and Union Territories. ## Flag hoisting at Badi Chaupar Jaipur

Take inspiration from the country's golden history- Chief Minister

Jaipur, Chief Minister Shri Ashok Gehlot, while saluting the known and unknown freedom fighters, said that due to their long struggle and dedication, the country got freedom from the slavery of the British. Democracy was established in the country after independence. He said that people of different religions, sects, and castes live in this country. Different languages are spoken. Despite so much diversity, our leaders kept this country united and united with the principles of Sarva Dharma Sambhav, Socialism, and Secularism. By following these principles, we must maintain the country's unity even further.

The Chief Minister was addressing a function organized at Badi Chaupar on Monday of 76th Independence Day. He hoisted the flag here and congratulated the people present on Independence Day. He said that it is the responsibility of all of us to carry forward the great traditions of democracy. The new generation of the country will have to work for the country's and the state's progress by imbibing the constitutional values of democracy, secularism, and socialism. He said that the youth should read the history of the country's independence to get acquainted with the freedom fighters' struggle, sacrifice, and sacrifice. Only by reading history will the new generation know the cost of freedom and the importance of democracy. Shri Gehlot said that great leaders like Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru, Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, and Dr. Bhimrao Ambedkar gave a new direction to the country. Former Prime Minister Indira Gandhi sacrificed her life while fighting the terrorist forces but did not let the country's unity come down. Former Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi also tried establishing peace in the Indian subcontinent and gave his life in this effort. The Chief Minister said that from 1947 till now, many changes had taken place in the country. The country has made unprecedented progress in the industrial sector since independence. Today our products are being exported worldwide, which is a matter of pride. The world has recognized India's talent as iron. We got freedom due to the tireless efforts of our great leaders Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, Lal Bahadur Shastri, Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, etc., under the leadership of the Father of the Nation Mahatma Gandhi. For the country's independence, many freedom fighters of Rajasthan gave martyrdom and fought a long war of independence. Today we live in a free country only because of the struggle done by the freedom fighters. It was seen in our neighborhood that countries were divided, military rule was established, but democracy in our country was continuously strengthened. Peace and solidarity are essential for progress in our country of different languages, religions, and provinces. The state has a great tradition of peace and brotherhood. The state's people should pledge on this day that they will always maintain unity in diversity, social harmony, and mutual brotherhood in the state.
