Independence day

First, I extend my best wishes for the Independence Day celebrations. On this occasion, I heartily wish you all a pleased 76th Independence Day. It is celebrated on August 15 every year with solemnity by all. On the Eve of today, the flag is hoisted on the Red fort by the Prime Minister to honor the historical event of August 15, 1947. On the 14th, the evening President delivers a message in the name of the Nation.

This year, as Prime Minister Modi wished "Hr Ghar Tiranga" movement is to be held across the Nation, according to which a flag is to be hoisted on the terrace of every house between 13th to 15th August 22.

Since 1947 every year on the Eve, every Indian citizen has been filled with great joy, pride, and enthusiasm. Today also, it is being celebrated with glee across India. Countrywide functions are being conducted under "Azadi ke Amrit Mahotsav." "All over, schools are organizing patriotic beautiful cultural programs. Several dignitaries and officials witness tasks that are taking place here and there. All younger or older are acquainted with the significance of this great day. Everybody knows that today we are free of all shackles and bondages. The divide and Rule policy of monarchy has reached its end. Living in a democratic country is a matter of pride for us. Now it's our land, people, and government—all for our country and our country. Now we can attain knowledge. The government is committed to quality education for all. The government launches various schemes for the betterment of citizens. Now we are free to follow our culture, customs, and traditions. All religions are given equal importance. All casts and classes are facilitated now to be united and progress unitedly. India became a secular and Democratic country. Now it's a rule of the people, for the people, by the people. We elect a leader to rule. We can hold our heads high dauntlessly and look towards the sky.

I am proud to be an Indian. We have been slaves of foreigners for centuries, so we know the value of Independence day. We all are committed to securing it forever.

"N poocho duniya walo, jo kahani hai. Ek pahchan hai, hm hindustani hai".

Now we are united and working for the bright future of the country and the upcoming generation.

We are blessed to have a right to speak and to be heard. But we must remember that India had to fight hard to meet this day. Several brave souls fought for it. Let's take a moment to think of their sacrifices and what they had to pay for the freedom we enjoy. They not only sacrificed their lives but also left their families for the sake of our country. A big salute to all who sacrificed their lives for our independence. May the glory of Independence Day be with all Indians forever.

Hindustan Ki shaan ka"
