

ROYAL HARBINGER

Reporting Fact of the Matter

Weekly

PAGE 2 :
Promotion of Rajasthan's Bahubali begins ...

PAGE 3 :
The role of lawyers is essential in the positive relationship ...

UDAIPUR | MONDAY, FEBRUARY 06, 2023 | PAGE 1 - 4 | PRICE : 5.00* (Vol. 08, No. 44) Postal Registration No.RJ/UD/ 29-134/2017-2019

Convocation is not the end of education, but the gateway to further learning in life - Governor Kalraj GGTU's fourth convocation ceremony, 30 gold medalists and 11 researchers were awarded PhD

Banswara : Pointing out the achievements of Shri Govind Guru Tribal University in the direction of freeing this holy land of Vagad-Kanthal from centuries of educational backwardness, Governor Shri Kalraj Mishra has said that the University has provided new dimensions to the academic and intellectual environment here. He has played an important role in He expressed this view on Saturday while addressing the fourth convocation ceremony of Sri Govind Guru Tribal University at Royal Kesari Auditorium, Lodha as the chief speaker. Describing the Govind Guru Tribal University as a remarkable gift in freeing the holy land of Newagad-Kanthal from educational backwardness for centuries, the Governor said that even in the absence of poverty, the tribes and other classes here are preserving their cultural identity and self-respect. Mahi Sarovar has completely changed the natural landscape here.

University provides new dimensions to the educational and intellectual environment here. The cultural splendor, natural beauty, and the hills of Mahi Sarovar in the middle of the panoramic Aravalli range give this region a special place.

Governor Mr. Mishra said that this land of Vagad is very sacred and historical. Saint Mavji and respected Govind Guru have enriched this holy land with their penance and Governor Mr. Mishra said that it is the result of the hard work of many such great men that today I feel blessed to attend the fourth convocation ceremony of Govind Guru Tribal University in the name of eminent social worker and freedom fighter Pujya Govind Guru. This University is an excellent gift of higher education to the youth here, which will take their dreams to new heights of success.

sacrifice. The tribal culture here has its unique importance. The Shaktipeeth of Maa Tripura Sundari on this earth gives immense power and energy to its devotees.

The Governor expressed happiness over the number of girl students getting degrees in the convocation ceremony, saying that girls had earned more degrees than boys. It is a pleasant and commendable development in the field of girl education.

Governor and Chancellor Mr. Kalraj Mishra in front of the Saraswati statue with the lighting of lamp and garlanding, national anthem, and Kulgeet inaugurated the ceremony. Governor Shri Kalraj Mishra awarded gold medals to 30 toppers and Ph.D. degrees to 11 research scholars at the function. Dr. Narendra Paneri conducted the program. Acting District Collector Govind Singh Ranawat, District Superintendent of Police

Rajesh Meena, Additional District Collector Naresh Bunkar, Banswara Sub-Divisional Officer Prakashchandra Rengar, along with district magistrates, a large number of people's representatives, members of the Board of Management and Academic Council, all the deans, faculty members, convocation ceremony Gold medal winners and degree holders, guardians, citizens, and intellectuals were present. The ceremony ended with the national anthem. Tribal Regional Development

Minister Mr. Arjun Singh Bannia said at the function that with the opening of Govind Guru Tribal University, there had been a revolution in the education level in tribal areas. He told the youth that the state government is making overall development in education and has started several schemes for higher education; take advantage of them on time and speed up your education. He said that the College Education Department, Government of Rajasthan, has started the Rajiv Gandhi Scholarship Scheme for academic excellence, which talented students should take advantage of.

The Governor was welcomed with a procession.

Before the commencement of the convocation ceremony, the Governor was taken along with a procession to the venue of the ceremony on the arrival of the Governor and Chancellor, Mr. Kalraj Mishra, at the Royal Kesari Auditorium in Lodha. The Board of Management and members of the University reached the venue in procession.

Vice Chancellor gave information.

Welcoming the Governor and Chancellor, Mr. Kalraj

Mishra, the Vice-Chancellor of the University IV Trivedi, gave information about various activities of the University. In the ceremony, University Registrar Govind Singh Deora gave detailed information about the participation in the formal activities of the convocation ceremony.

His Excellency the Governor was received on his arrival in Banswara.

His Excellency Governor Mr. Kalraj Mishra reached Talwada airstrip of Banswara on Saturday on a one-day visit. Governor Mr. Kalraj Mishra was received by Acting District Collector Mr. Govind Singh Ranawat, District Superintendent of Police Mr. Rajesh Meena and welcomed by presenting a bouquet. A guard of honor was given to the Governor on occasion. On this occasion, Additional District Collector Mr. Naresh Bunkar, Additional Superintendent of Police Kansingh Bhati, Bagidora Sub-Divisional Officer CL Sharma, etc. officers were present.

Convocation of PMU: Gold medals to 27 Meritorious Students

Udaipur: The convocation ceremony of Pacific Medical University was held on the university campus on Saturday. Chancellor Rahul Agarwal and chief guest Supreme Court Justice Jitendra Kumar Maheshwari awarded gold, silver, and bronze medals to 40 students and degrees to 700 students.

The convocation ceremony began with the academic procession of all Dean Directors and Heads of Departments under the leadership of Chancellor Rahul Agarwal. After this, medals and degrees were distributed on the university campus.

On this occasion, Chancellor Rahul Agarwal said that it is my expectation from the teachers of Pacific Medical University that they first imbibe themselves and then share their knowledge with the students, as well as make maximum use of information technology in this era of science and technology. So that the students get to learn something new every day.

Agarwal said that we have to prepare such educational models that fulfill the education policy's priorities.

On this occasion, Chief Guest Supreme Court Justice Jitendra Kumar Maheshwari said that the doctor should always be happy because the doctor's smile gives strength to the patient of serious illness to fight the disease. That's why the doctor should always contribute his hundred percent to save the patient's life in any situation because the doctor

Medical Sciences and Yatharth Chikitsalaya Group for the Government of Uttar Pradesh. Talks are also going on for joint research with Maharashtra and Gujarat medical institutes. Presenting the outline of moted. That's why the university is moving forward in the direction of using these techniques in teaching, along with investigating new areas like artificial intelligence, 3D printing, and neural sensors in is considered God.

The special guest was Prof. President of UNESCO's Asia Pacific Regional Peace and Sustainable Development Mahatma Gandhi Institute during this. Bhagwati Prakash Sharma, stressing the need for future-generation medical research by Pacific University Group, said that Pacific University Group is moving toward long-term multicentric research. MoUs have been signed with the Institute of future research at Pacific Medical University, Professor Sharma said that under these joint research agreements, Pacific Medical University will do other long-term medical research. We will conduct collaborative research on topics such as genomics and genomic engineering.

India will be able to maintain its leading position in medical science only if new-generation diagnostic techniques and medical research are pro-medicine.

At the beginning of the convocation ceremony, Uphalapati (President) of the University DrA. Gupta welcomed all the guests and gave information about the year-long activities and achievements of the university. At the same time, he said that sometimes the result of hard work is not immediately available. That requires a lot of patience. That's why the youth should set their goal and focus on them; then, success will be sure.

Institute's Vice-Chairman Preeti Agarwal thanked all the visiting guests.

About 3000 guests at the convocation ceremony, along with special guest Astrologer and Counselor Dr. Arvind Dwivedi, Justice Indrapreet Singh Joshi, Keshav Kaushik, Mr. Daga, Mohit Madhav, Shailesh Bhatt, Virendra Jasuja, Shantanu Gupta of Social Justice and Empowerment Department, Income Tax Commissioner Mumbai Amit Kumar Soni, Commissioner Yogesh Pancholi, Microsoft's Akhilesh Kumar Dwivedi, DIG Anti-Corruption Bureau Udaipur Rajendra Prasad Goyal, Pacific Group Chairman BR Agarwal, Coordinator Sharad Kothari, Registrar Devendra Singh Sarangdevot and other officials were present. Meanwhile, gold medals were awarded to three MBBS students, four gold medals to four students of M.Sc Medical, three gold medals in Dental, 11 gold medals in undergraduate and postgraduate courses in Nursing, and graduate and doctoral courses in Physiotherapy for their excellent performance in the previous years. Six gold medals were awarded to the students of post graduate stream.

Chief Secretary Usha Sharma inaugurated Sculpture Park

Mumbai: Rajasthan Chief Secretary Usha Sharma inaugurated the Sculpture Park set up at Bikaner House in New Delhi on Sunday evening. Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot was to inaugurate this park but due to unavoidable reasons, he could not attend the event.

Inaugurating the Sculpture Park, Chief Secretary Usha Sharma said I am glad that the foundation stone of this sculpture park was laid during the India Art Fair and I had the privilege of inaugurating it.

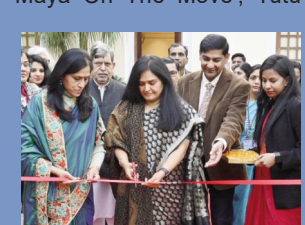

She said that along with the inauguration of Sculpture Park at Bikaner House, the heart of the national capital, it is a unique initiative to start 'Bikaner House Dialogues' in association with eminent personalities on subjects related to art, literature, culture and heritage. With this, apart from being successful in raising the issues related to these subjects, it will also be possible to make a detailed evaluation. SMT Sharma said that while on one hand contemporary art is being displayed by young artists through such events, on the other hand, senior artists are getting an opportunity to recognize the unique architecture of India and stay connected with their roots through the Sculpture Park. Congratulating all the 'gallerists' and 'artists' and the entire team of Bikaner House participating in the Sculpture Park, Smt Sharma said that it is expected that according to the priority of the Rajasthan government, there will be no shortage in beautifying and enhancing the heritage of artists and officers. We will also take new initiatives.

She said that this sculpture park has been made by the state government taking another step towards developing Bikaner House as a cultural hub in the capital. Drenched in the traditional art culture of the state, Bikaner House today has a glimpse of modern and contemporary art and culture.

On this occasion, the Additional Chief Secretary and Chief Resident Commissioner of the state in Delhi, Shubhra Singh said that internationally renowned sculptors have participated in this sculpture park and contributed to making this park a success. Resident Commissioner Dheeraj Srivastava said in the program that the initiative taken by 'India Art Fair' and Bikaner House is ensuring the participation of the young generation on a large scale in the field of art, as a result of which the future direction of art literature is also being determined. He said that this sculpture park will add Rajasthan's art, culture and heritage to national and international fame. In its first edition, the artefacts and sculptures of renowned and emerging artists of the country and the world have been displayed in the park. A first-of-its-kind sculpture park in the capital, it will provide a convenient venue for the best and emerging artists of the art world to showcase their artworks. Srivastava said that this sculpture park of Bikaner House will prove to be a milestone in giving a platform to modern and contemporary artwork. In the Sculpture Park, "Monk" by renowned artists Akhil Chand Das, "Banaras Ghat" by Tapas Vishwas, and "The Trinity" by Satish Gujral, K.S. Radhakrishnan's 'Air Bound Maya On The Move', Tutu

Patnaik's 'Tree', Dhananjay Singh's 'Faces-2', Ram Kumar Manna's 'Ganesh', Neeraj Gupta's 'Between Heaven And Earth', Tapas Biswas' 'Three Girls', Seema Kohli's 'Saraswati' and Sudip Roy's '12.40 P.M.' and many other works of art are on display. On this occasion, Secretaries of various departments of the Government of India and ambassadors of many countries, famous artists and celebrities associated with the art world, along with officials of various departments of the Government of Rajasthan were also present.

- Ritu Sodhi

KSHITIJ 2023- The Magnificent HR Conclave at SPSU

Udaipur: Sir Padampat Singhania University, Udaipur in collaboration with HR Success Talk inaugurated 'KSHITIJ' 2023 - The HR Conclave, on 3rd February 2023 at the Lalit Laxmi Vilas Palace Udaipur. With the objective to strengthen industry-academia linkage and explore best business practices 'KSHITIJ' 2023 brought together business leaders, HR practitioners and academia across a wide range of industries to facilitate sharing of their experience and knowledge. The Honourable Vice Chancellor and President of the University Prof. (Dr.) Padmakali

Banerjee presided over the event. Delivering the welcome address, she accentuated the relevance of Inclusivity and sustainability in Industry 4.0 in line with SDG and lifelong learning in education. She highlighted the requisite of dynamic work environments for building a sustainable workforce, engagements of individuals aligned to the vision and culture of their organization and the importance of governance in making workplaces a happy and healthier place.

Maharaj Kumar Saheb Lakshyaraj Singh Ji Mewar of Udaipur, the Chief Guest for 'KSHITIJ' 2023 graced the occasion with his presence and was honoured with the Award of Excellence in Sustainability in Business Practices for his outstanding contribution towards the society and the Nation at large. The flagship event witnessed the presence of eminent corporate leaders and industry stalwarts across the country from fortune 500 companies who deliberated on various trends in talent management practices. Business leaders from British council, Wipro, JK Cement, 3Pillar Global, HCL Technologies, HR Success Talk, People Strong, Boston Consulting Group (BCG), Ernst & Young, Bikano, Amazing Workplace, Hansa Solutions, Mphasis, Minfy Technologies Pvt. Ltd actively participated in the conclave. Round Table Discussion on Building Sustainability & Inclusivity into the heart of the business Practices and ESG (Environmental Social Governance) - The Core of Business Strategy were the prominent features of the event on Feb 3rd 2023. On Feb 4, 2023 Panel discussion on 'Journey from Campus to Corporate: Future Skills to be Employable Looking at Freshers from Corporate Lens' was held at the University. The event took place simultaneously in three different venues for the School of Engineering and Management. The first panel comprising of Mr. Ram Prasad, Chairman, Hansa Solutions, Hansa Solutions, Ms. Monika Marwah, HR Director, Blue Pi, Mr. Gokul Pandian, Director-Climate Change and Sustainability Service, EY, Mr. Kapil Kumar, British council, Mr. Rajneesh Tomar, Head-HR, Bikano interacted with the students and highlighted the in-house AI based training methods/programmes adopted by different companies and explicated the entrepreneurship concepts as well. Mr. P.B. Kotour, Head Global Freshers Engagement Program, Wipro, Ms. Ekta Kapoor, Co-Founder, Amazing Workplace, Mr. Amit Kataria CHRO, Minfy Technologies Pvt. Ltd and Mr. Khalid Raja, Associate Vice President Human Resources, People Strong were the panelists for the second panel. Sharing the anecdotes from their lives they emphasized the importance of mannerism, collaboration and competency and the holistic development through various skills as an essential component for employability. The third panel comprising of Mr. Govind Singh Negi, Global Head of Talent-Europe and India, 3Pillar, Mr. Joshua David M.D., India Campus Lead, Mphasis, Mr. Uma Sankar, CEO, Hansa Solutions, Ms. Garima Batra, Managing Director and Partner, Boston Consulting Group urged the students to stay updated with the industry trends and develop the skill set of right attitude, team work, passion and flexibility to face the future work challenges. The Deans, Head of the Departments, Faculty members and the students of the University participated actively in the interactive sessions. To take ahead the comradeship a cricket match was also organised in the University. The grand event witnessed an engaging participation and ended on a promising note of amalgamating technology and management practices to create a legacy of success in the corporate world.

