

A grand civic reception

Udaipur. A grand civic felicitation ceremony was organized in the Sagwara town of Dungarpur district. Udaipur District Collector Tarachand Meena was honored with the Chief Minister's Excellence Award by the state government.

State Water Resources Minister Mahendrajit Singh Malviya, TAD Minister Arjun Singh Bhamnia, senior social worker Dinesh Khodania, former Minister of State Asrar Ahmed, Kherwara MLA Dayaram Parmar, Pratapgarh MLA Ram Lal Meena, MLA Nagraj Meena, former MLAs Lalshankar Ghatia and Shankarlal Ahari, Tribal Commission member Pannal were present in the felicitation ceremony organized in the presence of Sagwara Municipal President Narendra Khodania and many distinguished people, the guests complimented Collector Meena by garlanding her with a shawl and giving her a congratulatory letter.

Udaipur District Collector Tarachand Meena said that one gets respect for doing good work, and the self-satisfaction that one gets by working in this tribal area is more important than respect. He said that the collector is the face of the government, and we have done the work of taking the public welfare schemes of the government to the common people. Collector Meena said that he has lived up to it whenever Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot has trusted him. He said that Udaipur is a city of social harmony, and he has worked with full sensitivity on developing the whole society while focusing on the remote backward areas of the district. He has given relief through the welfare development schemes of the state government.

Municipal President Narendra Khodania, while giving a welcome address, presented the hallmark of the remarkable work done by Collector Meena and said that the entire Vagad is proud of the congratulation of such a tribal officer.

In his address, Cabinet Minister Mahendrajit Singh Malviya said that Collector

Tarachand Meena had proved the thinking of all-round development in the tribal area as per the state government's intentions. He noted that social service could be improved, even through administrative service; Meena has told this.

It is a big deal to pass the Chief Minister's exam:

TAD Minister Arjun Bhamania said that passing the examination of Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot is a big thing. Collector Tarachand Meena was sent to Udaipur with confidence, and he has done every task given by the Chief Minister in a better way, so he has got respect. The credit goes to Collector Tarachand Meena for organizing Tribal Fair in the Kotra area. MLAs Nagraj Meena said that tribal could also become collectors and do better work. The Chief Minister has given a message by making Tarachand Meena the collector of Udaipur. Pratapgarh MLA Ram Lal Meena said that every hardworking person should get respect. MLA Dayaram Parmar said that the care Vagad should have given us had just seen a collector like Tarachand Meena in my political life.

A matter of pride and pride - Khodania

Senior social worker Dinesh Khodania said it is a matter of pride and pride for us to honor Udaipur's first tribal collector Tarachand Meena on behalf of the entire society in Vagad. The state government has always shown its intention to develop the whole community and accordingly has demonstrated its vision by giving unprecedented gifts in the budget. Presenting the first tribal collector to the Udaipur area and doing better work in this area by him is a tribute to the thinking of Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot.

On this occasion, former Minister of State Asrar Ahmed said that such events would take the development of Vagad further.

During the program, social worker Surmal Parmar read the congratulatory letter. On this occasion, former MLA Shankarlal Ahari, Lalshankar Ghatia, Nanal Ninama, Dheeraj Mehta, Sarpanch Sangh President Kailash Roat, Zilla Parishad member Harish Ahari and many public representatives and citizens were present. Lalit Panchal did the operation. Pannal Meena expressed gratitude.

Creativity and Commitment

Shri Bhandari's thoughts and decisions should have been a part of the state's policies - Dr. CP Joshi

Udaipur: An expert lecture on "Creativity and Commitment" was organized under Mohanlal Sukhadia University, Faculty of Management Studies. Rajasthan Assembly Speaker Professor CP Joshi was the chief guest in this lecture. The main speaker of the program was Mr. P.N. Bhandari, former Vice Chancellor, and IAS. The program was presided over by Prof. IV Trivedi, Vice Chancellor of Sukhadia University.

Speaking as the chief guest, Prof. CP Joshi, in his outspoken style, said that if the decisions taken by Mr. Bhandari when he was IAS were made part of the state's policy, the state would have been better and for longer, could have taken advantage of it. He highlighted the far-reaching impact of the decisions taken at that time by quoting the past days and agreement-disagreement with Mr. Bhandari.

As the keynote speaker, Shri Bhandari shared the creativity he used in the Water Supply Department, Electricity Department, and University with the audience. Also, he promptly answered the questions of the audience.

Vice-Chancellor of Sukhadia University, Prof. IV Trivedi, raised some important points regarding the discussion and said that both guests, Joshi Sahab and Bhandari Sahab, had been prominent officers of their time. He also shared many exciting memories of the time spent with Bhandari Sahab and his decisions. At the beginning of the program, the faculty director, Prof. Meera Mathur, welcomed the guests. The organizing secretary of the program, Prof. Hanuman Prasad, expressed his gratitude to the guests and informed them about the lectures being organized by the faculty. Apart from this, he shared the activities of the faculty and best placements with the House.

Ranu Nagauri of the faculty coordinated the program. Mr. Sehlot, Prof. G. Soral, Prof. ML Kalra, Prof. DK Bhatt, Shri KC Bhandari, Prof. Sanjay Lodha, Prof. P.R. Vyas, Prof. S.R. Vyas, Prof. Sharad Srivastava, Prof. B.P. Bhatnagar, Prof.

Renu Jatana, Prof. P.K. Singh, Prof. Neeraj Sharma, Prof. Sadhna Kothari, Prof. Anil Kothari, Prof. Bhanawat, Prof. Suthar, Mr. C.R. Devasi, Dr. Mukesh Barber, Prof. Manju Baghmara, Jaswant Upadhyay Durga Shankar Menaria, Sonu Nagori, Pooja Devija, Swati Bandi, Jyoti Suhalka, Neha Nagori, Devendra, Bhupendra, Chirag, Mahendra, Gajendra, Riya, Priyanka, Ramesh, etc. were there.

University Students' Union President Mr. Kuldeep Singh, students of the Faculty of Management Studies, and students of the Faculty of Law were present.

Education is not a business but a social concern

Udaipur: Continuity will be seen in the education policies of the country made from time to time. The language has changed, but the goal is the same. The teacher should be full of human attitude. The student shapes himself by following his teacher, so the role of the teacher is significant in personality building.

Renowned educationist Prof. JS Rajput expressed this idea in the inaugural session of the three-day national seminar on "Current Teacher Education: Goals, Challenges and Possibilities," which started on Monday at Vidya Bhavan Govindram Seksaria Teachers College, Udaipur.

The seminar is being organized under the joint auspices of Vidya Bhavan and Azim Premji University, Bangalore.

Chief speaker Prof. Rajput, referring to Mahatma Gandhi, said that if every person performs his duties, various problems can be ended.

It was presided over by Ajay Mehta, President of Vidya Bhavan Society. Mehta said that education is an essential medium for the progress of the society. It should be seen as a social concern rather than a business.

Pro. Hridaykant Dewan presented the objectives of the seminar. Welcome

Coordinator and Principal Dr. Farzana Irfan. Dr. Santosh Upadhyay and Savitri Rao did the operation. Thanks, co-coordinator Dr. Naina Trivedi gave.

In the first day's sessions, educationist Nidhi Gulati spoke on the relation between theory and practice in teacher education and Smriti Sharma on pre-service teacher education and academic possibilities. Prof. Sadhna Saxena chaired the session.

In the second session, Nisha Butolia of Azim Premji University discussed the implications of state-level English language training programs and the professional development of teachers. Vidya Bhavan School Principal Pushparaj Singh Ranawat expressed views on the changing nature and challenges of the in-service teacher training program—session chaired by Prof. MP Sharma.

In the third session, Radhika Menon of Delhi University and education consultant of Vidya Bhavan Society, Prasoon Kumar, gave their views on how teachers should be trainers. Hridaykant Dewan presided over this session.

M.P.U.A.T. Celebrated Red Cross Day by donating blood and taking out a rally

Red Cross Day was celebrated with full enthusiasm in the constituent colleges of Maharana Pratap University of Agriculture and Technology, Udaipur.

Dr. Manoj Kumar Mahala, Student Welfare Officer of the Directorate of Students' Welfare, said various programs were organized in the constituent colleges to celebrate the day.

Dr. BK Sharma, Dean of Fisheries College, and students donated 10 units of blood and celebrated Red Cross Day by taking out a rally in the college and giving the students the message of selfless human service and social service.

Assistant Dean of Student Welfare Dr. N.L. While organizing the rally, Meena and Dr. KK Yadav informed the students about eating coarse grains, their quality, their effect on the body, and maintaining the balance of nature and the environment.

Dr. Gayatri Tiwari, Assistant Dean of Student Welfare, College of Community and Applied Sciences, organized the orientation program. The children were told about the different types of work through a picture exhibition depicting the working system and the rules of the Red Cross Society, which inspired them.

College of Dairy and Food Technology, under the leadership of Dr. Kamlesh Kumar Meena, Assistant Dean, Student Welfare, the students performed shramdaan on the university campus. They talked about making children and the general public aware of it through posters of environmental protection through rallies.

Of Assistant Dean Student Welfare Dr. Jai Kumar Maharchandani and Dr. K. College of Technology and Engineering. While talking about the different dimensions of human service, Yadav informed that the consumption of lemon water in the scorching heat is beneficial for the body, lemon water stalls were set up on the premises, and people were given lemon water and other health, explained the effect on the body.

Co-Gnathon: an insight into the principles, diagnosis, and planning of orthognathic surgery

Udaipur: One day lecture cum practical program on "Cognition: An insight into the principles, diagnosis, and planning of orthognathic surgery" under the aegis of Orthodontic Society of India and in collaboration with Rajasthan Orthodontic Study Group (ROSG) Held on Wednesday, at the Department of Orthodontics, Geetanjali Dental & Research Institute, Udaipur.

The event's guest speakers were Dr. Arun AV, MDS, from Bengaluru, and Dr. Pavithra Bai M, MDS, from Bhubaneswar.

100 delegates, including staff, postgraduate students, and private practitioners from across Rajasthan and Gujarat, had registered for the event.

Dr. F.S. Mehta, Vice Chancellor, Geetanjali University; Dr. Nikhil Verma, Principal, Geetanjali Dental & Research Institute, Udaipur; Dr. Balwinder S Thakkar, President, Indian Orthodontic Society; Dr. Mohit Pal Singh, Vice-Principal, Pacific Dental College, Udaipur; Dr. Vikas Punia, Vice-Principal, Darshan Dental College, Udaipur; Dr. Preet Jain, Vice-Principal, RR Dental College, Udaipur; and Dr. Narendra Bansal, Head of Dentistry, RNT Medical College, Udaipur presence made the event attractive.

The program was organized under the guidance of Dr. Nikhil Verma, Principal, Geetanjali Dental & Research Institute, Udaipur, and Dr. Namit Nagar, Professor and Head of the Department of Orthodontics.

The delegates benefited from guest speakers' lectures on the principles of diagnosis and orthognathic surgery. Each representative performed practical sessions on 2D Prediction, Tracing, and Model Surgery under the supervision of the program's guest speakers.

Garland of cotton yarn, citation to them by wearing a tricolor flag

Udaipur (Dr. Munesh Arora): The results of Mahatma Gandhi English Medium School students, Dhanmandi, were declared on Tuesday. On this occasion, Pankaj Kumar Sharma, district convener of Mahatma Gandhi

Jeevan Darshan Samiti and Shanti Ahimsa Cell, felicitated the students who got first, second and third positions by wearing cotton garlands, tricolor uparna and presenting their certificates.

Sharma said in his address that taking an innovative initiative by Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot on June 19, 2019, Government English medium schools were started in the state; through this, the state government opened Mahatma Gandhi English medium schools at various places in the state. Since then, poor children can also get an education through English medium, and now the children of villages can also stand shoulder to shoulder with the children of big cities after getting English medium education!

The Chief Minister always says from the stage that Hindi is our mother tongue, but English education has become very important at the international level. A child studying English can stand with the children of the whole world and shape his future!

Opening of government English medium school in this episode is an unusual step!

Presently 42 English medium schools are operating in the Udaipur district. Chief Minister has announced 23 additional Mahatma Gandhi English medium schools in the budget 2023-24; thus, the total number of Mahatma Gandhi English medium schools in the district will be 65! The total enrollment in Mahatma Gandhi Vidyalayas in Udaipur district is around 14000.

The first English medium school in the district was inaugurated in Dhanmandi; here, the first batch of class 12th will also start! Which shows the success of this campaign!

Minister has resolved that every child in the state should get a quality education so that they can shape their future.

Sharma felicitated school principal Richa Roopal by wearing a Gandhi cap and cotton garland for her excellent result in the school.

Councilors Firoz Ahmed Sheikh, Umesh Sharma, Dr. Sandeep Garg, Ashfaq Qureshi, Jagdish Jat, Kamlesh Suthar, Neeta Nalwani, staff of the school, parents of the children were present on the occasion.

Inauguration of Bakery Workshop

Udaipur. A three-day bakery workshop was inaugurated at the Pacific College of Hotel Management, Pacific Academy of Higher Education and Research University.

The workshop was inaugurated by the Chief Guest, Vice Chancellor of the University, Prof. K. K. Dave. The Chief Guest was welcomed by the Vice Chancellor of the Institute, Mr. Jacob John.

Participants from the Udaipur division participated in the workshop. On the first day of the seminar, Bakery Chef Mr. Murl Manohar Gupta taught the participants to make Chocolate Muzel Baked Yogurt Short Cookies Food Custard.

All the participants actively participated in the workshop.

Vice Principal of the institute, Mr. Jacob John, encouraged all the participants and said that the participants would be told to make more bakery items in the future.

The program was coordinated by Dr. Mehndi Sharma, associate professor of the institute.

Hi-tech Children's Hospital

Udaipur. Facility expansion work is being done continuously with state-of-the-art technology in Maharana Bhupal Hospital, located at Udaipur divisional headquarters. Under this, the facilities have been strengthened in the Children's Hospital recently by installing PICU Central Monitoring.

Children's Hospital Superintendent Dr. RL Suman said there is a separate building with 450 beds, a state-of-the-art nursery with 220 beds, PICU with 100 beds, etc. Every bed in the hospital is connected to oxygen, the central line is connected, and ventilator monitors are all already installed.

Recently PICU was made more state-of-the-art by installing central monitoring, under which central monitoring of 20 beds can be done continuously for 24 hours on top of two T.V.T.V. screens. This primary monitor works with WiFi, which makes the facility check the patient's vital parameters, especially oxygen saturation, heart rate, respiratory rate, blood pressure, and temperature, which will be convenient for patients admitted in critical condition.

Dr. Suman said that in this system, the oxygen saturation is recorded by Mansima's patented technology, which detects the saturation even in the patient's grief. The cost of this system is 1.8 crores.

Lecture by on Religious Development in Udaipur over the last 400 years

Udaipur. In the Annual Guide Orientation Program organized by the Maharana Mewar Charitable Foundation, Udaipur, Ms. Swati Jain got acquainted with the spiritual development of Udaipur in the last 400 years. In which the guides of the City Palace Museum participated.

Ms. Jain threw light on the oldest religious site of Mewar, which is found in the construction of Narayan Vatika in Nagri near Chittor. Talking about the expansion of the Bhagwat religion from Mathura to Vidisha via Nagri, Ms. Jain presented detailed information based on old records. Based on inscriptions and archaeological evidence, information about the construction of ancient temples was given in the city of Ahad, which was situated here before Udaipur.

While giving a presentation, Ms. Jain presented detailed information on the construction of temples, etc., built by Maharanas and Maharans after Udaipur became the capital.

At the end of the lecture, Bhupendra Singh Auwa, Administrative Officer of Maharana Mewar Charitable Foundation, thanked Ms. Swati Jain and gifted books, etc., of Mewar on behalf of the Foundation.

Grandmaster Chess Training Festival inaugurated

Udaipur. The Grandmaster Chess Training Festival was inaugurated today by the Kingdom of Chess, in which the chief guest was Shri SK Shrimali, and guests Vivek Singh Rajawat and Narendra Mardia. The head coaches of the camp are India's top players, Grandmaster Debashish Das and Chandrajit Rajawat from Udaipur. The camp includes top talents from Rajasthan, such as Commonwealth gold medalist Yash Bhardiya, world championship qualifier, and national medalist Arun Kataria, Kiana Parihar, Parshwa Parmar, and Rishen Jilova.

The camp will be held from May 5 to 15. Chief organizer Chandrajeet said that this camp is a chess initiative to take chess in Rajasthan to a higher level and bring more medals for India at the world level.

Happiness shared among destitute children

Udaipur. On the occasion of Chief Minister Shri Ashok Gehlot's birthday, prominent social workers of the city shared happiness among the destitute children. Social workers Piyush Kachhawa, Fateh Singh, Rajeev Suhalka, and Suresh Shrimali reached Hansraj Children's Hall run by Rajasthan Child Welfare Committee in Devali on Wednesday and celebrated Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot's birthday there with destitute children.

Disadvantaged children wished the Chief Minister on his birthday. On this occasion, destitute children were provided with the stationery, river, and other necessary materials to sit on, and sweets were distributed among the children. During this, organization secretary G.S.Sharma, Neetu Singh, S.V.Singh Sarika Bhatt, Pramila Kumawat, etc., were present.